Lewis Orders A 3-Day Work Week

Miners East Of Mississippi River To Remain On The Job Without A Contract

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — (AP) — John L. Lewis today ordered soft coal miners east of the Mississippi river to work a three-day week starting next Tuesday, abandoning his traditional "no contract, no work" policy.

The contract with the soft coal industry expires at midnight tonight, but Lewis directed his miners to stay on the job for a short work week "to remove the stresses and strains which could cause industry and public irritation."

He told the miners east of the Mississippi to work Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday next week, when they return from their present 10-day vacation. After that, Lewis advised the diggers to work on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week.

No Time Limit.

There was no time limit to the arrangement, although north and west the coal operators believe they have a contract until Aug. 14 under terms of the Taft-Hartley act.

Mines west of the Mississippi are not affected by the three-day limitation, but Lewis advised his members there to begin work on Monday "and continue consecutively during the week for the number of days worked by the mines."

However, he restrained them from working on any Saturday.

The same contract terms will remain in force despite the termination of the one-year agreement tonight.

The older blanketed in all east-of-Mississippi operations, including those of the Southern Coal Producers association and the U. S. Steel Corp., with which Lewis is holding separate contract negotiations.

LABOR BATTLE ENDED

Taft-Constructed Measure Passes Senate, 51 to 42

VETO IS PREDICTED

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman said today he is going to continue to fight for the repeal of the Taft-Hartley act as hard as he can.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The senate today passed the labor bill constructed by Sen. Taft (-Ohio).

The vote on passage was 51 to 42.

Seventeen democrats joined with 34 republicans in voting for the bill.

Thirty-five democrats voted against passage, with seven republicans opposing it.

Butler and Wherry voted for passage.

It contains the basic provisions of the Taft-Hartley act and marked a sweeping victory for the Ohio senator in his duel with the Truman administration over repealing the T-H law.

Defeat For Truman.

It was a crushing defeat for President Truman, who during the 1948 campaign pledged repeal of the measure.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, the democratic leader, predicted before the vote that Mr. Truman will veto the Taft bill if it reaches him.

Senate passage sent the measure to the house.

House action on any labor bill is doubtful at this session.

In any event there is a strong likelihood that the two-year-old Taft-Hartley act will remain unchanged until after the 1950 elections.

Before passage, the senate accepted by a 49 to 44 vote a Taft-written substitute for all that section of the bill he had not previously gotten amended to his liking.

Sens. Butler and Wherry, Nebraska republicans, voted for the substitute.

Taft's plan for injunctions and plant seizure in "national emergency" strikes was approved Tuesday.

Taft's program to make 28 changes in the Taft-Hartley act but preserve its "essentials" now has been substituted for the entire administration labor bill.

Preliminary to taking up the second section of Taft's plan, the senate beat down an attempt to nullify all state laws which outlaw the union shop. The vote was 58-41 against.

Two Trainmen Are Injured In Derailment

OMAHA—(AP) — A Missouri Pacific freight train was derailed today in Omaha, injuring two trainmen, wrecking a garage building and tearing up roadbed.

M. T. Hicks, 61, Falls City, engineer was enveloped in steam when a blowoff cock was broken. He suffered second and third degree burns on the right hand, arm, shoulder and face.

M. E. Faller, 38, of Falls City, fireman, suffered a back injury as he leaped from the cab as the engine started off the tracks. X-Rays were being taken to determine the extent of the injury.

Engine Derailed.

The engine, pulling 55 to 60 cars, was derailed in the Omaha yards when it went through a switch onto a spur track. Hicks said the track was not heavy enough to carry the engine, one of the heaviest types used by the Missouri Pacific. Hicks said a section crew had left a switch open and failed to flag him down.

The locomotive fell against the garage of the Omaha Towel Supply, scraped along the side for perhaps 30 feet, damaged the garage and three cars parked inside before it stopped.

Faller jumped but the engineer stayed in the cab until the engine stopped. He then grouped his way through a tunnel formed by the engine and the garage and summoned help. The broken cock released steam under 210 pounds pressure.

Fireworks Sale Out Of Control

...Says Fire Marshal

Sale of fireworks in Nebraska is apparently "completely out of control," E. C. Iverson, state fire marshal, said Thursday in telling of complete destruction by fire of a fireworks stand at Bloomfield. The fire, he said, was caused by a passing motorist tossing a firecracker into the stand. No one was injured.

Roadside stands are springing up in all sections of the state, Iverson said, with the result that towns having fireworks ordinances are having a difficult time enforcing them.

"People of the state feel there is no law against fireworks due to the fumbling in the past session of the legislature," Iverson explained. "They think they have a legitimate right to sell fireworks regardless of local controls."

Homes Bill Is Passed

Housing Measure Gets Approval, 228 To 185; First "Fair Deal" Win

WASHINGTON—(AP)— A multi-billion dollar housing bill, snatched from the brink of defeat and rammed through the house, was chalked up today as the first major success for President Truman's "fair deal" program.

Jubilant administration leaders followed up their hard-fought 228 to 185 victory last night by moving swiftly to iron out slight differences between the house bill and the measure passed by the senate April 15.

Both democrats and republicans in the senate predicted little difficulty in reaching a compromise. There was a chance the measure might go to the White House before the end of the week.

Hard Fought Battle.

Supporting the vast program on the final house showdown were 193 democrats, 34 republicans and one American-Labor party member. Opposing were 131 republicans and 54 democrats.

Nebraska's democratic Congressman Eugene O'Sullivan voted for the bill. The three republican representatives, Miller, Stefan and Curtis, voted against passage.

The bill authorizes grants and loans up to more than $14,000,000,000 over the next 40 years for: Slum clearance, 810,000 publicly owned city dwelling units and farm housing aids.

Passage of the bill was greeted by a great roar from the democratic side, for the issue had been in doubt, as the hot six-day debate wound up in a sudden, furious battle.

Win On A Roll Call.

Opponents, mustering all their strength in an effort to kill the bill if possible, or cripple it in any case, succeeded at one point in reducing the measure to a skeleton of the program Mr. Truman had requested.

Shouting "socialism" and arguing that the housing costs would imperil the nation's financial stability, a coalition of republicans and southern democrats mustered 168 votes to the administration's 165 in a drive to kill the publicly-owned housing program.

WRECKAGE LEFT BY GAS BLAST—What remains of a cafe operated by Mr. and Mrs. Al Roduenz at Creighton, Neb., leans uncertainly after the explosion of a gas tank. Mrs. Roduenz, the only occupant of the building at the time of the blast, suffered cuts and bruises. The tank, buried at the rear of the building, contained gas used for fuel. Cooler Temps, Showers Will Welcome July

102 At Scottsbluff Is Year's High Reading; High Waters Go Down

Somewhat cooler temperatures are in store for Nebraskans the first day of July following high readings in the 90s in parts of the state today.

The weather man expects the mercury to rise not higher than 85 degrees Friday. Scattered thundershowers are predicted for widely scattered portions of Nebraska tonight and early Friday.

Precipitation during the 24-hour period ending early today included .02 at Lincoln, .26 at Omaha, .09 at Tekamah, .03 at Hartington, .38 at Falls City and .40 at Fremont.

Scottsbluff sweltered as the state's hot spot Wednesday with 102 degrees—the highest reading ing 1949.

Nemaha Drops.

The state's low reading of 51 was reported at Sidney, while Lincoln's high was 90, the low 76.

Meanwhile, the new rain forecast comes as a threat to sections of water-logged eastern Nebraska where flood waters had only begun to recede yesterday.

At Falls City, the Nemaha river dropped below flood stage late Wednesday. But government weather observer K. B. Wilson said because of saturated ground, a wide area near the city was still under water.

The river level there was 21.4 feet, Wilson said, only .1 of a foot below flood level. Wednesday's .38 of an inch of rainfall at Falls City brought to 15.43 inches the total amount of precipitation there this month.

Notice Of Appeal Is Given Promptly

Defendant, 28, Receives Verdict In Tense Silence; Faces Maximum Term Of 13 Years

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Judith Coplon was convicted today of being a spy for Russia.

The jury convicted her on both counts of the indictment against her. She faces a maximum sentence of 13 years in prison and a fine of $12,000.

Federal Judge Albert L. Reeves denied a defense plea for a month's delay and indicated he would pass sentence tomorrow at 8 a. m. (CST).

She will remain free on bond at least until then.

The jury announced its verdict shortly after 12:30 p. m. (CST) after having her fate in its hands for almost 27 hours. It reported ready to give its decision at 12:10 p. m., 26 hours and 58 minutes after receiving the case.

Room Deathly Silent.

The jam-packed courtroom was deathly silent when the jury began filing in at 12:33 p. m.

The former justice department employe was tense as she stood up to receive the verdict.

Miss Coplon's attorney, Archibald Palmer, demanded that each juror be polled and this was done by the clerk, Paul A. Roser.

Palmer announced that the verdict will be appealed to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, and, if necessary, to the Supreme court.

Faces Another Trial.

Miss Coplon, 28, a Barnard college honor graduate, still faces trial in New York along with Valentine A. Gubitchev, a Russian, on espionage conspiracy charges.

Under count one of the indictment under which she was convicted today the maximum penalty is 10 years and $10,000.

That count accused Miss Coplon of taking secret reports from FBI files on counter espionage and subversion with intent to benefit a foreign power (Russia) and injure the United States.

The second count, with a top penalty of three years and $2,000, merely charged removal and concealment of such material and made no mention of an intended use for it.

Miss Coplon made no display of emotion as she stood to hear the "guilty" verdict.

While the jury was being polled she sat down and cupped her chin in her hand.

Raymond P. Whearty, assistant chief of the justice department criminal division and a prosecutor in Miss Coplon's trial, told reporters:

"We definitely intend to try the New York (conspiracy) case."

Up to the time of her arrest Miss Coplon was a $4,479-a-year political analyst in the justice department alien registration section.

JUDITH COPLON . . . spied for Soviet Russia, jury decides.

No Depression Signs As Ag Income Remains High

... STATE FARM INCOME $125,000,000 ABOVE '48

By ARCH DONOVAN.

The "bearish" reports of depression are not borne out in statistics of Nebraska's No. 1 industry — agriculture, according to Rufus Howard, state director of agriculture. He pointed out that the April figures show returns of 113 per cent of parity.

Director Howard admitted that this is slightly above the national average, but he said the situation is not too acute as long as the national average remains above parity.

Figures from depression years show that the state has come a long ways from the fidgety five years of the 20's, a decade ago. Today's prices are pretty good compared to the 47 cent corn and 54 cent wheat of ten years ago, Howard said.

From the records of the department the following figures were obtained:

Mother Nature is the big question mark as to what farm income will be this year. Production is the answer. Prices have shown some additional declines since last year, but to compensate there have been some favorable production conditions.

Blizzard losses to the livestock industry fell far below what had been predicted during the winter months. Both calf and pig crops were unaffected and the snow and spring rains made range land ideal for the cattle herds.

With the wheat harvest just starting and plentiful rain for corn, the weatherman will play a big part in determining just how large this year's agricultural income will be.

Assessment figures of Tax Commissioner Phil Johnson show that much of the big income that has been received by farmers during the past five years has been used to build up capital investment of the farm operator. Farm machinery values which were only $24,772,316 in 1935 had increased to $93,295,910 in 1948.

Livestock on farms, which had dropped to a low of $76,648,966 in 1938, showed increased holdings that were valued at $228,218,335 ten years later. Value of grain held by farmers was only $4,785,258 in 1937, but in 1948 it had an assessed value of $82,760,576.

Comparisons of the two five-year periods on assessed valuations of four major agricultural schedules—livestock, poultry, grain and farm machinery show:

1935	130,310,721	1945	313,940,535
1936	147,837,816	1946	276,271,493
1937	123,375,737	1947	362,807,484
1938	119,522,429	1948	408,217,978

Valuations on automobiles and trucks show that there has been a steadily increasing investment in motor vehicles even during the war years with rationing of sales. The records show valuations as follows by years:

1934	$24,104,129	1944	$56,524,879
1935	27,324,829	1945	63,611,374
1936	41,509,357	1946	64,714,741
1937	48,431,854	1947	84,409,488
1938	53,152,761	1948	120,809,138

Farm tractors, which were assessed at $15,491,480 in 1938, were valued at $35,453,604 just ten years later. Not alone on the farms were inventories built up. Industrial machinery and equipment that was assessed at $3,656,848 in 1934 had increased to $19,290,867 in 1948, showing the growth of industry within the state.

Merchandise stocks which had dropped to $37,031,555 in 1934 zoomed to a total of $96,554,028 in 1948. Personal and tangible property kept pace with other holdings. The assessment of $457,656,397 in 1938 increased in ten years to $961,850,115.

First Wheat Shipped Out Of Beatrice

Wet Fields Delay Southeast Harvest

BEATRICE, Neb. — (AP) — The first carload of 1949 wheat was shipped out of eBatrice Thursday as the new harvest gathered momentum.

First farmer to sell any of his 1949 crop was Ekke Paben, who lives two miles south of Beatrice. He delivered a load to the Farmers Union elevator in Beatrice yesterday for $1.76 per bushel to start the carload that left the elevator today.

Paben's wheat tested five pounds and had a moisture content of 13.80. It came from a 22-acre field Paben estimated will yield about 18 bushels per acre. Several other Gage county farmers brought in their first loads of wheat yesterday also.

Agricultural observers here said no combining is reported in Pawnee and Johnson counties because of the wet field conditions, but Jefferson county is reported slightly ahead of Gage in the harvesting. Saline county has three or four combines operating.

Jefferson county yields are expected to run near 25 bushels per acre, possibly the best in the area. The observers said the north half of Gage county should yield 12 to 15 bushels per acre and the south half 17 to 20 bushels. Pawnee and Johnson county yields were expected to average 12 to 14 bushels per acre but the moisture content in the wheat there will be very high.

The top tier of Kansas counties, Washington, Marshall and Nemaha, were reported about 75 per cent finished with their harvesting and yields there are averaging 15 bushels per acre.

Machinists' Union, Elgin Sign Contract

... Some Wage Hikes

A one-year contract was signed Friday by Cornhusker Lodge 1604, International Association of Machinists and company officials of the Elgin Watch plant here.

While the new contract does not provide for a general wage increase "some job inequities have been adjusted" a company spokesman said.

According to terms of the contract the company will also contribute an additional amount to the employes' benefit plan.

In a joint statement, union and company officials said they felt the new contract "is an improvement over the old one."

The new contract is retroactive to June 1 and runs until June 1, 1950. It effects more than 30 employes of the local Elgin plant machinists' division.

State Medical Foundation To Begin Activity

Seek Supply Doctors For Rural Towns

The Nebraska Medical Foundation is now a "functioning organization," Dr. Harold S. Morgan of Lincoln, Foundation president, announced Thursday.

The Foundation, formally organized last year, will start its activities as soon as donations are received, he added.

Sponsored by the Nebraska Medical association, the Foundation's purpose, Dr. Morgan said, is to meet the need for expanding medical care.

Rural Area Doctors.

One of its primary functions is to supply well qualified physicians for rural towns, he said. To do this, the Foundation will pay in whole or part for the medical education of promising students. The students will be required to practice medicine in a rural town one year for each year of medical education provided by the foundation.

The Foundation will be financed through contributions by persons "interested in the advancement of medicine in Nebraska," Dr. Morgan stated. He said its objectives are based on scholarships, research, postgraduate education and public health.

In addition to Dr. Morgan, Foundation officers are Dr. Donald Steenburg, Aurora, vice-president; Dr. C. H. Sheets, Cozad, board of trustees chairman; Dr. Clayton F. Andrews, Lincoln, treasurer, and M. C. Smith, Lincoln, secretary.

Members of the board of trustees are:

... Company Reports

An official of Safeway stores Thursday estimated the fire damage to the store in University Place "in excess of $25,000."

The fire was caused by lightning which struck the store during the Wednesday morning storm.

No Danger If Isotopes Sent West Europe

Gustavson Says; Only 2 Useful In Making 'A' Bombs

"Since only two of the radioactive elements being produced in America today could be useful in making the atomic bomb, or be considered as secret material, I can see no objection to sending other radioactive isotopes to western European nations," Chancellor R. G. Gustavson of the University of Nebraska said Wednesday night.

He addressed a clinic of educators, on the campus this week to develop courses of instruction in atomic energy for public school and university level students, and the public.

"America is now producing over 100 kinds of radioactive isotopes but only two of them—uranium and plutonium—are useful in making an atomic bomb."

Handcuffing Science.

The chancellor explained that the isotopes are simply a by product of the operation of atomic piles in this country. Their greatest usefulness is in aiding scientists to investigate agricultural, medical, biological and industrial problems.

"When you deny isotopes to scientists in these nations, France, England and Scandinavian countries, you are simply handcuffing science," Dr. Gustavson said. "After all, the exchange of scientific information resulted in such discoveries as insulin and vitamins. Even the atomic bomb was made possible by basic discoveries in physics by scientists in France, Canada England, Germany, Italy and Hungary."

The chancellor explained that people consume one radioactive isotope in the food they eat and the water they drink each day. This is potassium, which has a low radio-activity but occurs free in nature. Other isotopes occur as radioactive in nature, while others are made radioactive by artificial means.

He said the radioactive isotopes are now being made in Canada and France and several other European nations, notably the Scandanavian countries, are building cyclotrons which will produce radioactive elements.

Dr. Gustavson pointed out that the basis discoveries of radioactivity were made many years ago by European scientists. Today, America has the only abundant supply of radioactive isotopes and, the chancellor added, we "have a great moral obligation to make the non-secret isotopes available to researchers in the western European nations."

The question of whether American should export its radioactive isotopes to foreign countries was debated recently during the U. S. senate hearings on the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission's program.

Graduates To Fit Community Jobs Lacking

Dr. Douglas H. Fryer, New York university industrial psychologist, said Thursday that Nebraska schools, like others in the nation face the challenge of turning out more students who will fit occupational needs of the home community.

He spoke to more than 200 Nebraska teachers attending a special counseling and guidance clinic at the University of Nebraska.

In Nebraska, he said, the declining trend in population increases the need for graduates who can, and want to, fit into home community jobs.

Schools can help fill the need, Dr. Fryer said, by paying more attention to the individual interests of students and developing them to meet local occupational demands. He emphasized that not every local graduate can be expected to remain in the home community but said a good counseling and guidance program in school can increase the number who will.

Interests Important.

"It is becoming more and more important," he said, "for the teacher to recognize each pupil as an individual whose benefit from his education will come from his own efforts." Those efforts, he added, can be increased by linking instruction with individual interests—if the teacher knows what the interests are.

Dr. Fryer admitted that such a program requires widespread adjustments in both teaching and school administration. It will, he said, require schools to work closely with community businesses, agricultural enterprises and professions.

The whole task, he suggested, could be simplified somewhat if each school would select one of its own staff members for training in the gathering of occupational information, the giving and evaluation of interest and ability tests.

The counseling and guidance clinic is the second in a series the University of Nebraska summer session is offering to Nebraska school administrators and teachers. Thursday's clinic was designed especially for teachers and included about 70 program participants.

Vet Is Still Smiling After Nine Months In Iron Lung

... Tells Loyalty Of Family, Friends

Nine and one-half months flat on his back and still smiling! Wayne Quincy, a veteran of 34 months duty with the army in the Pacific, has been virtually imprisoned in his iron lung with polio since September 11, 1948.

Unable to speak without the "breath" of the lung, Wayne slowly told a story of courage and loyalty.

Speaking in short breathless fashion, Wayne told of the loyalty of his friends and fellow patients who, since Christmas of 1948, have been contributing funds for the support of his wife and three children. His own courage spoke for itself.

"My wife, Fern—and my three children—Virginia, Wayne, jr.—and Edward—come to Lincoln—to see me—every Sunday," he said. He smiled and pointed to a picture of his loyal wife and three handsome children.

Born and reared near Upland, Nebraska, Wayne was graduated from Upland high school in 1937. After his army career, he decided to go back to Upland to farm. He became discouraged there, however, and thought he would go to Omaha as a railway postal clerk. He was working in the Omaha terminal, he commented, and making good money when he was stricken with polio.

Physical Therapy.

Wayne has been receiving physical therapy treatments since his admission to the Veterans' hospital, and though it's a long slow process to recovery, he smiles and says, "I kindo' think I'll make it."

The 29-year-old patient was transferred from Omaha to Lincoln last November, in a co-ordinated movement of the Omaha rescue squad, the state safety patrol and Douglas county hospital attendants. His wife rode with him during the trip.

Wayne's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Quincy of Upland.

Surviving are four sons, George, Lincoln, William, Walter and Henry, all of Denver, Colo.; one brother, Sanford Gaskill, Corning, Ia..; one sister, Mrs. Emma Gemmel, Salem, Ore.; 15 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

Friends may view the body Thursday at Umbergers. Funeral services and burial will be held in Wray, Colo.

Reception Friday For Rev. Sandall

Grace Methodist church will honor its new pastor, Rev. Harold C. Sandall, and his family, at a reception Friday, 7:30 p. m., in the church parlors.

Members and friends of Grace church and the ministers of Lincoln are invited to attend.

All Milk Sold Here Will Be Be Grade A After Jan. 1

... City Ordinance Will Ban Grade C

After seven years, the grade A milk ordinance in Lincoln will be fully enforced after Jan. 1, Dr. Fred Long, head of the Lincoln-Lancaster health department, announced Thursday.

The sale of grade C milk in the city under the "emergency clause" will no longer be allowed after that date, Dr. Long stated in letters sent to all Lincoln dairies.

The ordinance, adopted June 22, 1942, requires that all fluid milk sold within the city be produced, processed and distributed according to set standards and be classed as grade A.

But a shortage of grade A milk producers made full enforcement of the ordinance impossible. On April 1, regulations were tightened to a degree when the health department required that all cream-on-top milk be grade A.

280 Producers.

A study completed Wednesday indicates that there will not be a shortage of grade A producers in the near future, Dr. Long said.

"A careful study of the grade A milk supply indicates that the future milk available for Lincoln should be sufficient to supply the city," Dr. Long stated in the letters.

There are now 280 grade A producers approved by the department, he said, and the number is expected to increase by Jan. 1. This compares to a 1946 figure of 62.

Grade A producers now certified are within a 70-mile radius of Lincoln, as far away as Columbus, Blair, Fairbury and Pawnee City.

"Inquiry of the managers of the processing and distributing plants elicited no serious objection to setting a deadline for revoking the emergency application of the ordinance some six months from now," the letter said.

"Therefore, on and after Jan. 1, 1950, all milk, buttermilk cream, sour cream, skim milk and cereal milk sold in Lincoln must be produced, processed and distributed in accordance with the grade A standards of Lincoln ordinance No. 3895."

Dr. Long commended the processors, producers and distributors for their "high co-operation" in putting through the milk improvement program.

The ordinance does not include ice cream, cheese or butter—all products of dairy processing plants.

Grade A standards are patterned after the U. S. public health service standards for grade A production.

Things checked for grade A producers include: health of animals, sanitation of barn facilities and speed with which the milk reaches processors.

Ashton Girl Named State's Outstanding Nurse Of Year

OMAHA—(AP)—Alice Piechota, general duty nurse at St. Francis hospital, Grand Island, today was holder of the Linda Richards achievement award.

It was presented Wednesday at a luncheon of the Nebraska Nurses association.

Miss Piechota, who hails from Ashton, Neb., was named as the state's outstanding nurse among graduates within the past year. She completed her course at St. Francis hospital in 1948 and competed against candidates from Nebraska's 12 other nursing schools.

Joint Award.

The Linda Richards medal is a joint award by the American Nurses association and the state association. Similar awards are being made in the other 47 states in observance of professional nursing's diamond jubilee. Linda Richards was America's first professional nurse.

The award was made by Leon Smith, assistant superintendent of schools in Omaha. Candidates are judged on the basis of achievement, scholarship, appearance, personality, leadership, aptitude for nursing and devotion to duty.

Directors of the Nebraska State Nurses association asked nurses as citizens to work for a better state health department and a competent and qualified medical director.

Board members said the number of public health nurses in Nebraska had dwindled until only six counties now have such nurses. Gov. Val Peterson Tuesday had asked the Nebraska Medical association to help him find a state health director, whose salary is limited by law to $5,500 a year.

State's Bond Buyers Reach 'Opportunity Drive' Goal

Nebraskans Top Quota Ninth Time

McPherson Leading In County Figure

OMAHA — (AP) — Nebraska bond buyers have done it again, state Director Leland R. Hall of the U. S. treasury savings bond division said today.

The "opportunity drive" for bond sales ends today. Hall said "the last official report shows us slightly below the 100 per cent mark but unofficial tabulation of last-minute sales indicates we are over the goal line."

Nebraska had a goal of $18,320,000 in series "E" bonds to reach by July 1. As of June 18 the total was $17,367,755.56 or 95 per cent of quota.

If Hall's prediction is borne out by final official tabulations it will give Nebraska a perfect record of full quotas met for nine consecutive bond drives since 1942.

Hall praised volunteer chairmen, bankers, retailers, newspapers, radio men and civic groups for their efforts in the drive.

Congratulates State.

"They and the people of Nebraska are to be congratulated," he said.

County-by-county records in "E" bond sales through June 18 (with percentage of quota figure in parenthesis) include:

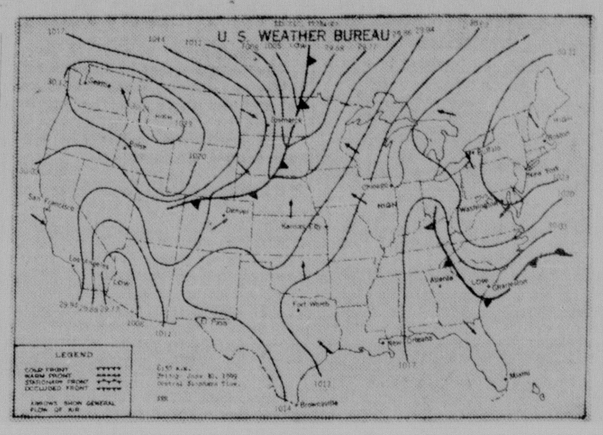

Adams $392,130.57 (103), Box Butte 181,800 (103), Buffalo 398,273.65 (127), Custer 249,187.50 (109), Dodge 412,002.23 (109), Douglas 3,469,354 (76), Gage 359,325 (100), Hall 364,505.81 (94), Jefferson 132,488.08 (74), Lancaster 1,288,864.82 (72), Lincoln 338,690 (112), Madison 259,235.72 (95), Platte 309,368.08 (116), Butler 258,206.25 (143), Clay 137,362.50 (107), Fillmore 195,881.25 (123), Greeley 53,362.50 (86), Howard 66,581.25 (72), Kearney 53,100.00 (57), McPherson 3,000.00 (300) Nemaha 235,404.58 (160), Nuckolls 155,218.75 (119), Pawnee 82,218.75 (89), Platte 309,368.08 (116), Saline 292,331.25 (125), Saunders 288,056.25 (105), Seward 185,681.25 (104), Thayer 116,100.00 (84), York 168,900.00 (79).

Accidents Fatal For 2 Workers

On Enders And Harlan Projects

(By the Associated Press)

Two workers on dam projects in Nebraska lost their lives this week due to accidents at the dam sites.

They were A. C. Collins, about 30, Harlan dam project worker, and Kenneth Lee Scholten, 21, worker at the Enders dam near Imperial.

Run Over By Train.

Collins, a cement pouring crew foreman, was killed Wednesday night when he was run over by a small train carrying cement along a trestle from the concrete mixing plant to the dam spillway. The electric powered train was rounding a curve at the time of the accident.

Collins was an employe of the Harlan Construction company which is building the dam near Alma.

Fell Into Cement Silo.

Scholten died of suffocation when he fell into a cement silo at the Enders dam Tuesday night. A truck operator and also in charge of cement loading part of the time, Scholten apparently fell from a ladder into dry cement of the 25-foot silo.

His body was recovered after a hole was cut in the wall of the silo with an acetylene torch.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Scholten of Sterling, Colo., formerly lived at Scottsbluff.

Park Lagoon Claims Life Omaha Child

Youngster Was Wading In Pool

OMAHA — (AP) — A six-year-old Omaha boy was drowned late Wednesday when he waded into the Haseom park lagoon "to see how deep it was."

He was Robert Pogge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Pogge.

With three other boys, he went to the park Wednesday afternoon. One of the boys, Tommy Evans, 8, said Bobby waded into the lake "to see how deep it was." When Bobby went under, the boys went home without telling the park supervisor.

The Evans boy told his mother, Mrs. Lyle Evans, what happened. She called Park Supervisor Bill Eberhardt, who found the body and applied artificial respiration until the fire department rescue squad arrived. Its efforts, like Eberhardt's, were futile.

Bobby would have celebrated his seventh birthday Saturday.

York Man Rescued From Creek, Dies

YORK, Neb. —(AP)— John Penner, 75, who was rescued from drowning in Beaver creek through the combined efforts of a 10-year-old Cub Scout and park employes, died in a hospital Tuesday night.

Physicians said they believed Penner suffered a cerebral hemorrhage while fishing on the creek bank and toppled in.

The Cub Scout, Robert Lockhorn, went into the water after the elderly man though he was unable to swim. He grasped his overalls and with the help of park employes pulled him to the shore.

Penner was hospitalized at once.

Penner, a native of south Russia, homesteaded in Hamilton county. He had lived in York since 1931. Three sons and seven daughters survive.

Tax Ruling Means Money To Ranchers

...Profits Defined

OMAHA—(AP)—A U. S. Tax court ruling may mean money in the pockets of Nebraska ranchers.

The ruling, received by an Omaha law firm, hold that profits for the sale of breeding stock on ranches are to be considered as long-time capital gains and taxable on a 50 per cent basis.

The Omaha firm-Fraser, Connolly, Crofoot and Wenstrand—represented Fawn Lake Ranch Co. of Rushville, Neb., in a suit against the commissioner of internal revenue. The case, involving the 1943 tax year, was argued here Oct. 1947.

The commissioner contended that profits from the sale of breeding stock on ranches were simply straight income, except when the sale was made for the purpose of decreasing the size of the breeding herd, and should be so considered in making income tax returns.

Up 12½ Millions

Late in the '20s Nebraska's grand assessment rolls showed real and personal property, and intangibles to the extent of nearly a billion dollars more than 10 years later. A billion of assessed valuation had disappeared from the state tax records. We never recaptured that taxable wealth.

To some extent that explains why levies for the purposes of state government, and for local political subdivisions, are at the peaks they are today.

But for four years the trend of assessed valuation of real and personal property, tangibles, has been upward. In that respect Lancaster's figures just released by County Assessor Harry W. Scott are impressive. Lancaster's valuation for 1949 is 12½ million dollars greater than in 1948. New building represents a substantial amount of it, over 3¾ millions. More automobiles, more corn, more household equipment, and more savings in bank accounts count in a very large sense for the remainder of the increase.

The figures provide additional proof of Lincoln's gratifying growth.

A few days ago an Omaha friend, who keeps an alert weather eye on valuations in Douglas county, reported the increase there might be 15 millions, or more.

If the same condition prevails among all the 93 counties of the state, it may develop that when the state board of equalization completes its labors it will not be necessary to hike the state mill levy to the extent anticipated at the close of the legislative session.

How To Do It

In recent weeks there has been a notable change along the esatern seaboard relative to a farm program. The Christian Science Monitor echoes it. In the last issue of The Monitor editorially it says that "the need to underwrite the American farmer against a recurrence of the calamity of two decades ago is no longer a political issue. Controversy centers only on how to do it."

Night before last Senator Wherry was shouting over the airwaves for his own farm program, which he says is new, and sound. (There isn't anything new in any of the 8 points he outlined a short time back to a western Nebraska audience.

The Monitor starts out with a program of its own, originally drafted by Dakota farmers. "A quasi-government corporation," it says, "farmer controlled would be set up by an act of congress, started off with a federal loan (not gift) for working capital. This corporation would make commodity loans and 'support at some parity level the portion of participating farmers' crops which constitute their quotas of that year's domestic consumption. Farmers who wish to exceed that quota, sell the surplus on the world market, would have to pay the difference between the price they got and the parity price."

That plan is not very different than a Nebraska farmer presented on this page a few days ago.

Tossing In The Sponge

It may have been a galling experience for the leaders in the American Federation of Labor, but President William Green and his associates never did a smarter thing than to request the United States senate to kill pending labor legislation, amended beyond, as originally introduced, recognition.

If any individual contributed to an atmosphere making it impossible to enact an acceptable substitute for the Taft-Hartley law, it was Mine Boss John L. Lewis. Mr. Lewis has been making too much noise recently for the peace of mind of the American people.

Actually, the task of framing the new labor law would be relatively simple were it not for the two extremes—one represented by a labor leadership of the Lewis type—another embracing the old industrial tycoon who never has altered his outlook through any of the stormy years of labor trouble.

Wholly apart from the immediate interests of employer and employe the sudden, dramatic decision in the senate has set the stage for one of the most amazingly ironical political developments of recent years. Sen. Bob Taft of Ohio comes up for re-election next year. It had been anticipated that Senator Taft would be confronted with a senatorial campaign of the most intense character. He won his fight on labor legislation. Rarely has any member of the senate in single-handed fashion successfully borne the brunt of a sharp congressional struggle to a greater degree than Bob Taft in recent days. Just a year ago this morning he and his friends quit Philadelphia all washed up. They had taken one of the soundest beatings from the Dewey forces any man ever got. Taft was through, it was said, and his second unsuccessful bid for the presidential nomination had eliminated him permanently.

Well, here he is back, the outstanding man in his own party, overshadowing Governor Dewey and pushing the titular head of the republican party back into obscurity. Senator Taft has proved that it is unwise to bury a politician so long as breath remains.

Gray's Objections

Now it is Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray, jr. who is kicking over the bucket in criticism of the Hoover reorganization program. Carl Gray is not a politician, an orthodox "bureaucrat," or any other kind of an animal commonly assailed for fastening himself to the federal payroll and hanging to it for dear life. He is the son of the former late president of the Union Pacific railroad, known and loved by thousands of Nebraskans. Mr. Gray simply says the Hoover reorganization recommendations for handling veterans affairs are either useless, costly, or actually harmful to good service. Mr. Gray took a job no one wanted. His lusty poke is apt to carry real weight.

A Second Borah

It is not clear whether our Washington newsman was trying to be kind or unkind to Illinois Senator Paul Douglas. He writes that Douglas is the senate's "new Borah," with maverick tendencies in his voting.

Borah, intellectually a giant, nevertheless missed real greatness in a long senatorial career. His name rarely is spoken today among the crowds, although Borah's power and his capability played a vital role for more than 20 years in the United States senate. Any number of explanations can be offered for his failure to attain the distinction that went to some of his colleagues. His critics frequently insisted Borah weakened his usefulness because of his ambition to be president, but that is a natural ambition to the discredit of no man. Probably Borah's greatest weakness was a political instability, a lack of consistency, suggesting the absence of a carefully thought-out political philosophy, a national view affected too much by temporary currents. Borah was a conservative one day and a rebel the next. Senator Douglas will do well to examine and reflect upon the parallel.

FORTY DAYS OF DROUTH

A note from a friend in Massachusetts closes on this plaintive key:

"We are having our drouth and hot weather. Forty days of dryness, the forty driest days in this region over forty years."

★

In the Missouri basin we have been having, and we have had months of unprecedented moisture. It started with the early, heavy snows of winter, roared through weeks of blocked highways, 30-foot drifts, then moved into the spring of 1949 to the accompaniment of drenching, gulley-washing rains. We have also been having some "scholarly," if shallow discussions of planning—over-all planning—for Missouri basin development. Before boldly embarking upon a vast network of dams and reservoirs in the old valley of the Big Muddy, we are told, ever so earnestly and persuasively—before we turn a spade of dirt—we should find out how much waste and flood waters we can hold back by contour farming, by other soil conservation practices, by shelterbelt plantings on a vast scale. After the saplings are placed in the ground, since in all good time, in the nature of things, tiny acorns become big oaks, then we will know how many reservoirs and how many dams actually are needed to do the job.

★

Unfortunately the God who created our great river basins failed dismally to give full weight to over-all planning. Even in connection with little details—little details such as cloudbursts filling dry canyons, or torrential rains over vast areas—God, back of Him, nature of which He is the architect, seems at times to have such scanty respect for over-all planning in ivory towers. We were curious to know whether a soil conservation spokesman for the Department of Agriculture was undertaking to toss a few monkey wrenches into the program for Missouri basin development by trotting out shelterbelt plantings as a substitute for dams and reservoirs storing waste and flood waters. He entered an emphatic denial. In this region where torrential rains are recognized as part of the facts of life he scoffed at the idea shelterbelt plantings would do what the Pick-Sloan plan, an MVA even more, or any other sensible plan of river development is expected to do. Sure, we the people of the Missouri basin want contour farming, sound soil erosion practices, intelligent soil conservation practices, shelterbelt plantings—but in our admiration for them we do not propose to be led astray. We need cheap electricity for our farms and for our factories out here, along with shelterbelt plantings, and cheap electricity comes from hydro-electric developments.

★

We have seen that part of Massachusetts to which our friend referred. Normally it is lovely; abundant moisture, beautiful trees, lush green hills and valleys. Now and then nature gets its feet tangled up both here on the plains and there in Massachusetts. A shelterbelt planting on those old New England hills will hold back no water when skies above fail to yield a drop for 40 days and nights. Neither will shelterbelt plantings contribute anything to impounding or storing waste flood waters of Missouri basin streams which flow to the gulf from November until the following April, hour after hour, day after day, month after month — waters which should be caught and poured out on fields when needed in times of acute drouth.

★

It sounds well to talk about over-all planning. It has an orderly appeal although the planning which is discussed deals with a force frequently neither orderly nor associated with carefully thought out plans. We have a great respect for the magnificent accomplishments in this state in recent years in the healing of the gullied hills, the development of contour plowing the adoption of terraces to hold back water, the application of every sound soil practice that has been utilized since our sad experiences of the '30s. They have been magnificent. But the greatest misfortune that could befall us would be to permit ourselves to be misled into believing that we can ignore the waters of the running streams of late fall and winter; or that we push aside an inspired program of dams and reservoirs to contain those waters flowing to the ocean for use at such times when we need them in the growing seasons. Or are we to believe that through shelterbelts and soil practices we can dry up our creeks and rivers in late fall and winter and early spring simply by never permitting any water to seep to the natural watercourses which God Himself created.

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — When Secretary of State Acheson got back from Paris, he expressed his thanks to Vice President Barkley for his help at the foreign ministers' conference.

Barkley was mystified. It was news to him that he had been helping.

Acheson then explained.

At the start of the Paris conference, the atmosphere was cold. Finally Acheson invited Foreign Minister Vishinsky to dinner. But even after cocktails the guests were aloof. So the secretary of state decided to mellow the foreign minister of Russia with some of Alben Barkley's famous stories.

As a result Vishinsky was almost in tears. Even the interpreter had a hard time keeping a straight face. Acheson told every

PEARSON says the justice department once decided to discontinue after two or three more days its investigation of the loyalty of Judith Coplon (above), believing the FBI had been given a false tip. The very next day Miss Coplon, now on trial for treason, made contact with a Russian agent.

Barkley joke he could remember, and after the dinner was over, Vishinsky put one arm around Acheson's shoulders and remarked:

"I may not win anything negotiating with you, but it is certainly a pleasure to visit with you."

* * *

One of Barkley's latest stories is about a Kentucky friend who helped him get elected to the house of representatives a quarter of a century ago. After the election the friend came around to tell him:

"I want you to know that I sweat, bled and almost died for you. There isn't anything I wouldn't do for you, and all I want is for you to be a great congressman."

A few years later Barkley was elected to the senate. Again his friend came to see him, and said:

"I want you to know that I sweat, bled and almost died for you and I know you are going to be a great senator. There isn't anything else I want from you."

* * *

Finally, when Barkley was elected vice president of the United States, his friend came back and this time he said:

"When you were elected to the house of representatives, I did my best to help you. When you were elected to the senate, I went down the line for you again. I also sweat, bled and almost died to make you vice president. Now I want you to do something for me."

"What is it?" asked Barkley, worried.

"Help me take out my citizenship papers."

Since the much-ballyhooed battle of the B-36 vs. navy jet fighter hasn't yet come off, the air force has decided to stage a secret B-36 test on its own.

These tests have ben staged at Muroc Base, California, and so far jet planes have theoretically shot down—with camera guns — the giant plane which is scheduled to carry the atom bomb in case of war.

However, this does not yet mean that the jet fighters are superior to the big bombers. So far the B-36 hasn't fired back, has merely tried to escape jets. Since the bombers' guns have a range 800 yards greater than the jets, the final result may be different.

* * *

The tests have also demonstrated that it's difficult to hold the jets steady for accurate firing at an altitude of 40,000 feet. In contrast the B-36's guns are on a more stable base and can shoot farther.

It is also significant that the air force has used its lightning-speed F-86 in the secret tests—a plane that holds the world's speed record and can outfly the navy's Banshee.

NOTE—The F-86 was piloted in the Muroc test by Captain "Chuck" Yeager.

The inside story of the Judith Coplon case is that at one time the justice department almost dropped the investigation.

Original tip regarding the good-looking young government girl was picked up, strangely enough, aboard the Polish steamship Batory. The FBI had a plant aboard the vessel and overheard Judith Coplon's name mentioned during a conversation.

Making a routine check of her name, the FBI found that she was working in the justice department, and put her under surveillance. This all began shortly before Christmas. The surveillance soon showed that the young lady was spending nights in the apartment of another justice department official, H. P. Shapiro. She brought her suitcase from his apartment to the office next morning.

A loyalty check was made of Shapiro which turned out O.K., and the justice department then figured it was wasting money shadowing Miss Coplon. It almost decided to drop the case. In the end, however, the surveillance was continued for another two or three days.

It was the very next day, and after spending the night with Shapiro, that Miss Coplon went to New York to meet her Russian boy friend, Gubitchev.

The U. S. army has strange ways of doing things.

Only nazi defendant to plead guilty and turn state's evidence at the Nuremberg trials was Ernest Wilhelm Bohle, who was finally acquitted of war crimes against peace and humanity, but was sentenced to five years for being an SS man.

Believe it or not, the army has now imprisoned Bohle with some of the hard-boiled SS life-termers against whom Bohle testified. As a result he is in danger of his life.

When Bohle was first sentenced to Landsberg prison he was actually put in solitary confinement, usually reserved for those waiting death. The cells have no ventilation, and Bohle was denied exercise and the right to shave. Other war criminals were treated more leniently.

Following protests, Bohle has been assigned to hard labor but is under constant threats from other SS prisoners.

Representations by the American Civil Liberties union to the army so far have gone unheeded.

The French and British fleets are staging a secret rendezvous off the French coast today (June 30) to test out very important new radar equipment . . . At one point during the Paris conference when Vishinsky stalled, Acheson stood up and said: "Mr. Vishinsky, I didn't come to Paris to dance a diplomatic minuet. I came here to get something accomplished." Vishinsky immediately went back to real work.

Cowboy Dies Of Injuries

Suffered Broken Neck During Rodeo

ALLIANCE, Neb. — (AP) — An Alliance rodeo injury has resulted in the death of Ivan Jorgensen, 35-year-old cowboy from Orchard, Colo.

He died in a hospital here late Wednesday of injuries received Sunday.

After turning in one of the top performances in the rodeo, Jorgen- received a broken neck when he was thrown during the bulldogging event on the final day of the rodeo.

With him when he died were his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs Carl Jorgenson, of Evergreen, Colo.

Alliance residents immediately began a drive to raise funds for Jorgensen's family.

The Alliance Times-Herald earlier had started a collection for the cowboy after his injury.

MOTHER AND CHILDREN.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: I'm addressing this plea to you. I hope you will print it. We are desperately in need of a house. We cannot afford to buy, but a place with reasonable rent on which we could make improvements ourselves would be fine. We must be within reasonable distance of transportation as we have no car. Our family has been separated for over a year now. Part of our children are in a children's home in another town and the rest in another children's home here in Lincoln. I have been working and my husband and I have a small apartment. He is disabled. I'm a good housekeeper and mother, we all are of good character. Our children have been taught to respect the right of others. But I guess children aren't supposed to have a family roof over their heads. We have tried every lead we hear of but always with no results.

MEASURE OF EQUALITY.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: It has been truly said: "Progress is the watchword of America." From early history our nation has stood for progress and humanity. It is regrettable, and sometimes a little ominous that a small segment of our population has been slightly inclined to the status quo. The world progresses. Our nation must progress along with the world. A majority vote of our citizens decides all questions when a referendum is called for. Many editors ask readers if they hear propaganda intended to dissatisfy our citizens with our form of government to advise them of the facts. It is well to remember the people of Russia are largely serfs and consequently have no comprehension of what American liberty means to our loyal and happy people, who through their duly elected representatives make all laws in the United States. The unquestionable fact is that in this country all citizens are of the most enlightened, educated and liberty-loving group on the face of the earth. With us each citizen casts a ballot with the same weight and influence of any other citizen regardless of social status, financial standing or reputation.

CUTTING THE CLOTH.

Chicago, Ill.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: The John S. Knight editorial in the Chicago Daily News on June 18 may have come to your attention. In case it has not you no doubt will be interested to learn that the White House and the Illinois senators and representatives are being bombarded with mail and the coupon. Attached hereto you will find a copy. I believe you will agree with me that this editorial is unusually unbiased, factual and constructive. I am taking the liberty of calling this editorial to your attention, feeling that if editors by and large across the country will either reproduce it or develop something along the same line in their papers, they will by such a program get a large amount of mail headed Washington-way from all sections of the country. Certainly we all must agree with Mr. Knight that we must let the president and the congress know that we the people have decided that the spending spree is over. If this isn't done, little may come of the Hoover reorganization program.

HARRY P. TROENDLY.

THE ROCK CRIED OUT.

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: May I call your attention to a review (New York Herald-Tribune, June 19) of "The Rock Cried Out," a new novel by a former member of your staff, Edward (Tuck) Stanley:

"This is Mr. Stanley's second novel and earnest of the reality of his talent. His first, 'Thomas Forty,' was a story of Westchester county in the Revolutionary war; its body all action-packed with the clash of military adventure and spy work's chase and run, though its spirit and feeling are a great deal more than that. Portions of the present novel are as tumultous or as taut as the heartiest sabering or the sternest tensions of the first. But the new book's quieter passages show Mr. Stanley's ability as an historical novelist to equal advantage. No one uses with more expert ease the color and incident and characterist personalities and peculiar detail of period and place, in advancing a story and unfolding the nature of its people, than does he as he carries the Blennerhassetts to Gretna Green and thence implacably to New York, through federalist Philadelphia, along the western road to Pittsburgh, down the Ohio to Marietta and to their island, and through disaster's aftermath."

Since the author of "The Rock Cried Out" is Nebraska-born and educated, I thought his friends would be happy to read of his latest success.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by

MARQUIS CHILDS

Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — One of the most conscientious men in government in recent years was Wilson Wyatt. As housing expediter in the critical months immediately after the war, Wyatt fought hard to get public assistance for home builders.

He believed that government should do everything possible to get more dwellings built so that GI's returning from the war would have decent housing. In line with that conviction he backed a corporation setting out to make a new type of steel and enamel prefabricated house.

Wyatt urged that the War Assets administration lease to the Lustron corporation, which proposed to make the prefab houses, the giant B-29 engine plant at Chicago. The plant had cost the government $70,000,000 and the machinery in it was worth an estimated $100,000,000.

* * *

Wyatt was overruled. WAA had given the lease to Preston Tucker and the lease was the base of Tucker's fabulous promotion of his rear-drive Tucker Torpedo. Tucker and seven of his associates were recently indicted for fraud.

Although he has never said so publicly, that was one of the reasons Wyatt resigned as housing expediter. Short of an all-out attack to get prefabricated houses moving rapidly off an assembly line with the aid of allocations of steel and scarce commodities, Wyatt doubted that such an undertaking could succeed. This was at the time when shrewd promoters were finding loopholes in the housing law so that they could build race tracks and roller coasters.

Wyatt resigned to return to private law practice in Louisville, Ky., his home. Not long afterward, in June of 1947, Lustron got a loan of $15,500,000 from the Reconstruction Finance corporation. WAA had leased to the company a former Curtiss-Wright plant at Columbus, Ohio.

* * *

Lustron retained as one of its Washington representatives Herschel Young. Young comes of a Jackson county, Missouri, family long close to the family of President Truman.

At the same time Herschel's brother, Merl, was employed as an examiner in the RFC and was passing on Lustron's application for a loan. Merl, who began with the RFC in November, 1945, after service with the marine corps, rose rapidly from accountant at $4,500 a year to examiner in the loan division at $5,130 and finally to a classification paying $7,193. Merl was 32 when first employed by the RFC.

In July of last year Lustron got a second loan of $10,000,000. That same month Merl Young resigned from the RFC to take a position with Lustron at $18,000 a year in charge of their Washington office. He still holds that position.

* * *

In February of this year Lustron got a third loan of $7,000,000. Last week Director Harvey Gunderson of the RFC, testifying before a senate committee, said the corporation would shortly apply for a fourth loan of $3,000,000.

The company, Gunderson said, is making about 15 houses a day and losing about $1,000,000 a month. The RFC's directors, according to Gunderson, believe that the company with equipment installed in the last 30 days can make a profit and get up to 100 to 125 houses a day. Senators got the impression, however, that before this point was reached still another loan beyond the $3,000,000 would be necessary.

Herschel Young says he was employed briefly by Lustron to help put up a model house in Washington. That may be the fact, yet it would be hard to convince the skeptical observer that "pull" and "connections" did not enter in here.

* * *

Merl Young, after he became Lustron's representative, was closely associated with William M. Boyle, jr., in the democratic campaign of last fall. He also worked as an unpaid assistant to Boyle in democratic national headquarters before Boyle became the full-time paid executive director of the committee.

The pattern of influence that is evident on the surface of all this is decidedly unhealthy. Sen. J William Fulbright of Arkansas has put in a bill which would forbid any employe of the RFC who had participated in making a loan to a company to accept a position with that company for five years after the loan was granted. In at least two other recent instances the RFC loan examiner has turned up immediately after the granting of the loan at a much higher salary with the company. Adoption of the Fulbright proposal would be a much-needed step in the right direction.

$20,000,000 Tax Refunds For State

OMAHA—(AP)—Total income tax refunds in Nebraska will "be close to $20,000,000" — a record figure — according to George O'Malley, internal revenue collector here. He said tax refunds paid through his office have totaled $12,884,335.69 so far this year. With some 2,000 refunds still to be paid, plus an undetermined number of larger refunds to be paid from Washington, he believes the total will be nearly $20,000,000.

Hammond Estate Inventory $92,784

An inventory of the estate of Willard Hammond, who died Feb. 21, was filed in County court Wednesday listing $92,784 in assets and 2,500 shares of stock in various companies.

Bulk of the evaluated assets is in insurance policy proceeds and bonds. No value was placed on the shares of stock. Real estate, comprising 80 acres in Chase county and a half interest in 80 acres in Lancaster county, was also listed.

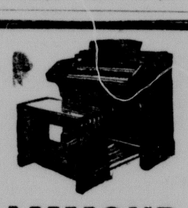

Thefts From Cars Total More Than $50

Theft of items valued at more than $50 from two cars and one truck were reported to the police Wednesday.

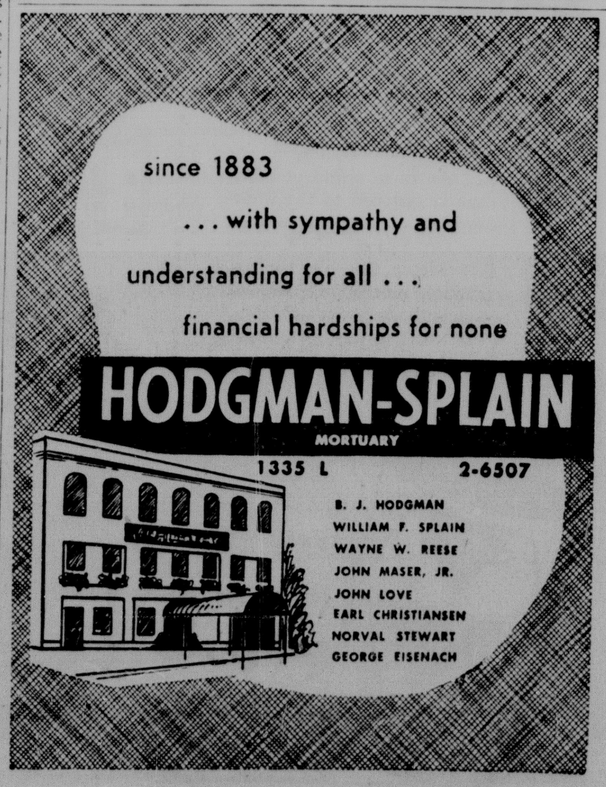

K. B. Kaar, 1821 N, reported that someone broke a window in a new truck parked near Eighteenth and N and entered the truck. An air horn mounted on top of the cab was loosened from inside and taken, he said. Value was estimated at $37.50.

Irving C. Cahoon, 311 North Twenty-fourth, reported that someone broke open a ventilator window of his car, entered and took an automatic cigaret lighter valued at $5 and the rubber floor mat valued at $1.

Jerry White, 1924 R, reported that someone broke into his car, also by breaking a ventilator window, and took an electric compass valued at $7.

Housing Planned In Request For Zoning Change

An application for change in zoning to residential C of three lots at 2306 South Fourteenth street has been made by John Hiltner. His stated purpose is to make the space available for residence-apartment courts.

In connection with this residential development Hiltner asks a similar change for 10 lots at 1435 Marion, heretofore used as greenhouse property. In his application, Hiltner said "it is impossible to build an accommodation of this type and eliminate the traffic hazard created by proposed tenants parking their cars in the street unless the change is granted."

July 5 Meeting To Aid College View Fund Drive

...For Park Lights

The newly-formed College View park and recreation committee's drive to raise $800 to match city funds for the purchase of lights for the College View softball and football field will receive further impetus at a second organizational meeting July 5.

The committee, under the leadership of the College View Parent-Teacher association, is composed of interested civic organizations in that area. Mrs. Virgil Mohr, chairman of the committee, said today the group may decide to purchase additional park facilities at the meeting.

The money furnished by the city, $650, is from the recreation budget set aside last year. The meeting will be held at Sheridan Boulevard Baptist church at 8 p. m.

CIO Wants To See Industry 'Human'

...1949 Aims Listed

COLUMBUS, O.—(AP) — The CIO director of organization yesterday said his group is determined to bring something human and necessary into industry.

Allan S. Haywood, a vice president of the CIO, spoke to delegates attending the 16th annual convention of the American Newspaper Guild.

"American industry must meet its responsibilities," Haywood declared. "We are determined to bring into industry something human, something necessary."

The CIO leader listed the primary CIO aims in 1949 as: shorter work day, shorter work week, higher wages, better houses, better hospitals and better pensions that come "before we are ready to die."

FINER CIGARETTE

Lucky Strike maintains America's

FINEST CIGARETTE LABORATORY

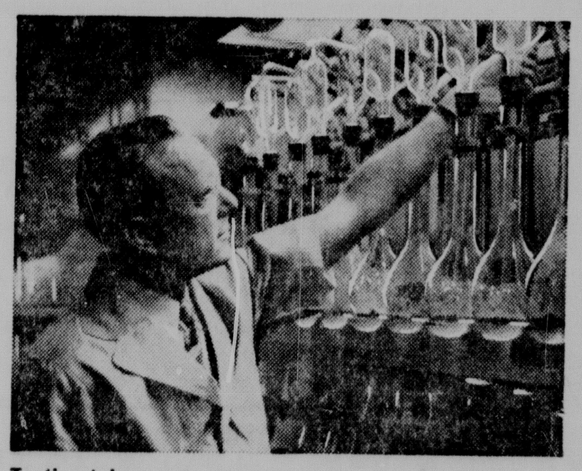

Largest and most fully equipped cigarette research laboratory in America is your guarantee that Luckies are a finer cigarette!

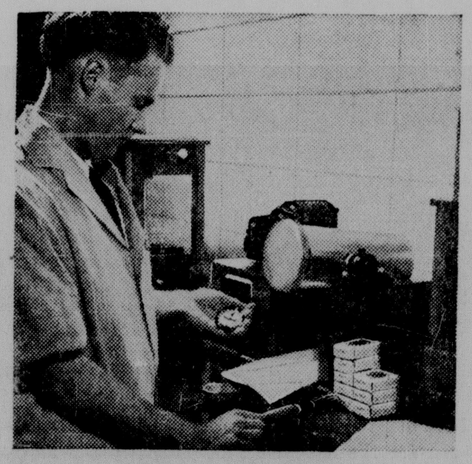

YOU SEE HERE the largest and most complete laboratory of its kind operated by any cigarette manufacturer in America.

For many years Lucky Strike scientists have delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale. Out of this has grown an elaborate system of quality control. Every step in the making of Luckies—from before the tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the laboratory's watchful eye. Literally hundreds of precision tests are conducted daily to make certain that the Lucky Strike you smoke is a finer, milder, more enjoyable cigarette. As you read this, a constant stream of tobacco . . . samples from every tobacco-growing area . . . is flowing into the laboratory in Richmond, Virginia. These samples are scientifically analyzed, and reports of their quality go to the men who buy at auction for the makers of Lucky Strike.

Armed with this confidential, scientific information—and their own sound judgment—these men go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco. This fine tobacco—together with scientifically controlled manufacturing methods—is your assurance that there is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike!

Testing tobacco. Samples from every tobacco-growing area are analyzed before and after purchase. These extensive scientific analyses, along with the expert judgment of Lucky Strike buyers, assure you that the tobacco in Luckies is fine, light and mild.

So round, so firm, so fully packed. Typical of many special devices designed to maintain the highest standards of cigarette quality, this mechanism helps to avoid loose ends . . makes doubly sure your Lucky is so round, so firm, so fully packed.

So free and easy on the draw. This meter draws air through the cigarette, measures the draw. Samples are tested to see if they are properly filled. Tests like this one are your guarantee that the Luckies you smoke are truly free and easy on the draw.

Grand Island's Souvenir Map Distribution Is Criticized

..'Nebraska's Best North-South Route' Said Missing

COLUMBUS, Neb.—(AP)—The Nebraska president of the U. S. 81 Pan--American Highway association has criticized the distribution by Grand Island restaurants of a souvenir map printed on napkins.

"The Grand Island chamber of commerce has copyrighted a souvenir map of Grand Island and the state of Nebraska showing principal highways and cities, yet leaving out three of Nebraska's finest cities and Nebraska's best north-south route," declared R. F. Kennedy.

"Norfolk, Columbus, York and many other fine Nebraska cities located on U. S. 81 have been left off this place map publication which is being used to inform tourists passing through Nebraska of the principal points of interest in the state," Kennedy said.

The Grand Island chamber of commerce secretary, Charles Gardner, said the souvenir map was not supposed to be a road map or an accurate map of the state. Instead, Gardner declared, it is printed as a souvenir of Grand Island.

Strictly Souvenirs.

Gardner explained that the maps are being given away as souvenirs by seven Grand Island restaurants. They show, he said, only approximate distance and the relative location of Grand Island. Central Nebraska scenes are worked into the design, he added.

Grand Island spokesmen also called attention to a place mat distributed by a Columbus cafe. The north-south Highway 81 and east-west Highway 30 are shown on the map, but the only Nebraska cities listed are Columbus and Grand Island. Distances are computed from Columbus. On the margins of the map are printed promotional material chiefly about Columbus.

Kennedy described U. S. 81 as "the shortest and most direct north-south route all the way down to Mexico City."

"It is a shame when information is published for tourists to read, that accurate facts and all principal cities are not included in these information leaflets, especially when the territory includes the whole state," he continued.

He said as soon as U. S. 81 is completed south of Yankton, S. D., bridge it will bring "a terrific volume of traffic on this road which is now taking a round about way through Iowa and Missouri. This will result in increased gasoline revenue and tourist trade through Nebraska."

Kennedy recently was re-elected president of the Nebraska division of the Pan-American Highway association. Lynn Hutton of Norfolk was re-elected national president several months ago.

State Highway Construction Cost Is Down

...For Oil Paving

Based on bids made by contractors for bituminous mat paving this month as compared to a year ago, the state will get about seven and a half per-cent more mileage next year for the same money if the trends continue.

Approximately one-half of the cost of this type of paving is the applied oil which is mixed with a sand-gravel aggregate. There has been more than a two cents drop in price per square yard.

On the Atlanta-Arapahoe highway, bids in March last year averaged 15.3 cents for oil and about a seven and one-half per-cent reduction on the entire contract.

Normally the state constructs about 200 miles of this type of highway each year so that if the lower prices on oil continue it would permit construction of an added 15 miles of hard surface road next year.

The lower price, if continued, will permit expansion of the planned program for next year, the department indicated. Because of expenditures to repair storm damage and maintain gravel roads, the recent bituminous mat contracts were the first to be awarded this summer and the first indication of lower prices.

Research Chief Of Java Plantation Visiting U. Of N.

J. G. Churchward, chief of research of the Anglo-Dutch plantations in Soebang, Java, is a visitor this week at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

The plantation manager is conferring with agronomy engineering specialists to learn the latest research information on soil fertility, weed control chemicals and farm mechanization. Churchward said most of the work on the 100,000-acre plantation is done by hand labor but "we hope to mechanize more." He said the war hindered development.

Mr. Churchward is on a three-month tour of the United States.

Drouth Disaster Mounts

(By the Associated Press)

A month-long drouth is reaching the "disaster" stage in southern New England, a Massachusetts Farm Bureau federation official said today.

A hot, rainless June over the area, as well as in parts of New York and New Jersey, has damaged farm, vegetable and fruit crops.

Twenty per cent of the hay crop in southern New England has been lost because of the dry weather, said Carleton L. Pickett, head of the federation. There appeared no immediate prospect of heavy rain in the dry stricken areas.

The most serious effect of the dry spell, Pickett said, is in pasture land.

Pastures Gone.

"In many places it is necessary to resort to grain feeding in barns instead of letting the cows out to pasture," Pickett said.

Nearly adequate rainfall was reported in Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont. Earlier this month, however, hazardous fire conditions had been reported in wooded areas in the three states.

New York City's 35 days of drouth has set a record. Only .16 of an inch of rain fell in the metropolitan area this month, compared with .86 of an inch for June, 1894, the previous low precipitation. No rain was forecast for the last day of June to wind up a dry month.

New Jersey has had no heavy rainfall for 39 days and crops have suffered heavy damage. However, the state agriculture department held out hope for the state's fruit crop. Many New Jersey communities have banned lawn sprinkling and car washing because of water shortages.

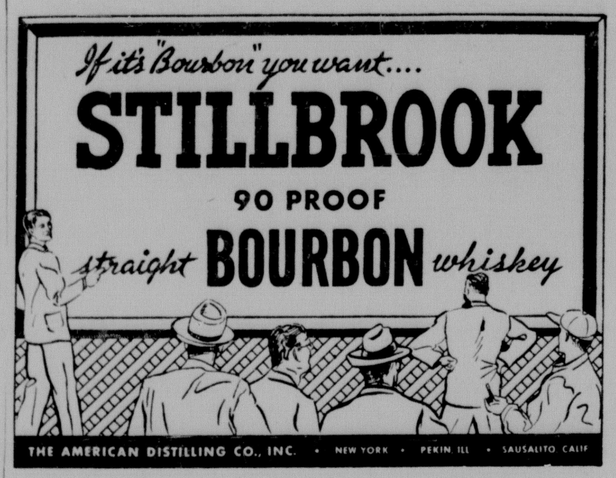

While the east was having drouth trouble from across the country Portland reported the worst frost in the growing season in 19 years hit the Klamath basin of Oregon. Damage in grain and potato fields appeared heavy. Temperatures skidded to as low as 18 degrees above yesterday. There was snow along the Cascade range and it measured six inches at Mt. Hood.

Two inches of new snow fell in the Olympic mountains across Puget sound from Seattle yesterday. Tacoma's 45 above was the coldest June 29 in 58 years.

Temperatures were in the 90s over most of the central and southern states yesterday and more hot, humid weather was forecast today. The mercury hit above 100 in parts of the plains states, including 102 at Phillip, S. D., and 101 at Lamar, Colo. Pleasant temperatures were reported in most of the eastern New England and Pacific coast states.

Farm Women's Exchange

EDITED BY CLARA BELL GRAVES

Address your letters to Mrs. Clara Bell Graves, editor The Lincoln Star Exchange, 905 N. Fifth St., Springfield, Ill.

The letters in this week's mail were of especial interest and variety.

One of the readers writes, "A few weeks ago, I mailed you a box of mountain ferns. Did you receive them?" Yes, I have them and would have written to thank you, lady, had you included your address on either of the cards written me.

A question comes up in one letter that may not be satisfactorily answered because I do not know too much about my subject. The question is, "How can some women work at housework and seem never to get tired? Is there a way of working without getting tired?"

An osteopath once told me that some women use up every bit of energy that they have doing such simple tasks as dusting or peeling potatoes. The theory of doing more with less nerve and muscular energy but in an attitude of play and pleasure is the secret of some women's freshness after a day of hard work, while other women in the same stage of health are ready for a rocking chair and footstool at the end of a busy day. One of my friends says that she never uses the word "busy" and never says "I don't have tme." She contends that we do have time for all that is required of us.

Doggie Birthday Cake.

Writes another reader, "Our dog is 16 years of age and to please the children who want just another birthday to celebrate with cake, ice cream and candles, we made a birthday cake for Patsy. She ate some ice cream but no cake."

Yarn Lamp Shades.

Whenever a sizeable number of readers ask for a certain pattern, we try to make one to please. Yarn lamp shades have been requested. They are beautiful and easy to make. For pattern enclose 10 cents in coin and a stamped, sellf-addressed envelope.

Original Vinegar Pie.

From the number of requests that have come to this desk for vinegar pie, it must be popular. And from the number of requests for a repeating of the recipe, we judge that many of the readers have lost the one that they once had.

Use two egg yolks, four tablespoons flour, one-half cup vinegar, one-fourth cup granulated sugar, small lump butter, two teaspoons lemon extract, two cups boiling water.

Beat the egg yolks, add the sugar mix with the flour and the vinegar and beat until smooth. Add the butter. Pour the boiling water gradually into the mixture. Place on range and stir until ingredients are smooth and well cooked. Add extract and stir well. Pour into baked pie shell and cover with the two beaten egg whites to which a tablespoon of granulated sugar has been added. Put into oven and brown. Use high temperature.

Body-Building Fruit.

No fruit has earned the name of body builder as has the banana. For weak children and undernourished adults, bananas have a place. Yet everybody cannot digest bananas. Cooked breakfast food affords a medium for cooking a sliced banana, and what a flavor! It greatly improves a cooked cereal.

Gooseberry Pie.

Cook the gooseberries until soft, then place into an unbaked pie shell a layer of the fruit, a sprinkling of one-half cup sugar mixed with a teaspoon flour, dots of butter and a tablespoon cream. Add another layer, same amount of sugar and flour, butter and cream. Bake in a 450-dgree oven until crust is brown. Very delicious.

IN THE MAIL

Cherry Juice Canning.

Wash and stem cherries, then measure two cups cherries and two cups granulated sugar. Put both into hot, sterilized jars, then fill with boiling water. This amount is for one-half gallon jars. Be sure that the water is boiling. Makes three pints of juice and will be ready to serve by December.—Mrs. J. R. Roth.

Graham Cracker Tort.

Use 14 graham crackers, crushed, one cup granulated sugar, one teaspoon baking powder, add three whole eggs, one cup pecans, cut up. Bake in a greased pan at 300 degrees for 10 minutes and at 340 degrees for 20 minutes. Cut while warm. Serve with whipped cream. Will serve from eight to ten persons.—Mrs. Laura Sherwin.

Raspberry-Rhubarb Preserves.

Use 10 cups granulated sugar, one and one-half quarts unpeeled rhubarb, cut in small pieces, one quart black raspberries. Mix and boil together for from 20 to 25 minutes. Or until mixture reaches jell test.—Mrs. Edwin Kneer.

We thank the readers who have contributed recipes and we hope that other readers will follow this example.

Look for this column again next Thursday.

Union Planning Radio Network

CLEVELAND — (AP) — President Walter P. Reuther of the CIO-United Auto Workers says the union is planning a national network of labor-controlled radio stations.

They will be dedicated, the labor leader explained last night, to enlightenment of "the little people" in their struggle to keep the world free from totalitarism.

Reuther spoke at the opening broadcast of Station WCUO, which the union opened. WDET in Detroit is the auto worker's other station.

Chapter 28.

Connie sped to the back of the stable on winged feet. Her heart was thumping madly, her cheeks were hot and the tears on her lashes were tears of joy. Chuck—dear, dear Chuck!

She seized the shadow which was Jeff by an arm, clinging to it tightly.

"You must go at once, Jeff. When this thing's settled you can come back. You must come back!"

"Connie, I can't go until some things are clear to me. How do you know I'm not guilty?"

"Because I know who is! It's—" She stopped.

"Yes. Slug Benjamin, of course. I've got to find him get the truth from him. And if he won't confess, I'll prove that he murdered John Stover by that broken shoe on his horse's left hind foot."

She could not hide her distress. "Jeff, I wish you wouldn't. It's not safe to stay near Cougar; it's only a matter of little time before they find you've gone."

"I've got to, Connie."

"If you stay, I'll stay with you," she said firmly. "Where are you going to look for Slug?"

"I've a hunch I can locate him through Mike Pacheco. Mike knows all the riff-raff in and around Cougar."

He took her arm and they went out the rear entrance and turned to follow a course parallel with the alley. They were behind Pacheco's saloon.

"I've got to get him out here," said Jeff. "But how?"

"I'll get him for you. I can send somebody in to tell him that a man is waiting in the alley for him."

Jeff got the gun which Chuck had put in the saddle bags, and with it in his hand went to the back door of Mike's place.

The door swung wide and Mike Pacheco stood limned in the entrance.

"Who ees?" he said, and stepped outside.

Jeff reached out a long arm and clutched him by the shirt collar. He jerked Mike away from the entrance and kicked the door shut.

"Not a peep out of you, Pacheco," he warned.

He heard light footsteps behind him and turned his head.

"It's me," came Connie's voice.

They entered the building, which was partly filled with empty beer and whiskey kegs.

"Where's Slug Benjamin?"

"W'at you wan' weeth heem?"

"I'm going to pin a few murders where they belong."

"Slug ees not keel Tolson or Stover. I swear eet!"

"If he can prove that, he has nothing to fear from me."

"I'm take you to heem!"

Mike stepped into the alley and turned to the left. Jeff followed closely, still gripping him and Connie marched beside Jeff. Mike picked his way along the alley for some fifty yards, stopping behind a darkened cabin. He gave a peculiar rap on the door and almost instantly Jeff heard the noise of a bar being removed. The door opened.

"That you, Mike?"

It was Slug Benjamin's voice. Jeff couldn't see the man, but he knew Slug was standing just within the doorway. Slug spoke again, and there was sudden suspicion in his voice.

"Who's that with you?"

Jeff gambled. With one swift motion he thrust Pacheco aside and leaped through the doorway. His arms went around a bulky body and the two of them staggered back into the darkness. The suddenness of his assault took Slug off guard. He whirled the fellow around and brought his gun barrel down on Slug's head. He sagged to the floor.

"Light the lamp, please."

The wick caught and the shadows drew back. Slug lay on the floor, but his legs moved slightly. Pacheco stood wide-eyed and scared. Connie had drawn the thirty-two-twenty Colt she usually carried.

"Sit down on the bunk, Mike," Jeff directed, and Mike obeyed. Connie watched him closely, her gun still in her hand.

Slug groaned and opened his eyes. For a few seconds they gazed at Jeff without the light of recognition in them; then Slug abruptly sat up, his hand feeling for his gun.

"I took your gun," Jeff told him. "Get up and sit in that chair."

Slug slowly raised himself. His gaze was on Jeff. He backed slowly to the chair and sat down. Jeff pressed his question home while the man was still groggy.

"Slug, you killed Sam Tolson and John Stover, didn't you?"

The effect of this was electric. Slug's torpor vanished and he gotup from the chair. "No, by Godfrey! That's a lie."

Jeff stood before him accusingly, the Colt pointed at his heart.

"I tell you I didn't do it!" cried Slug. "You're tryin' to make me own up to it to save that skunk of a brother."

Jeff made a threatening motion with the gun and Slug went on defiantly.

"Go on and cock your gun! I ain't goin' to confess to somethin' I didn't do. I shot Grub, yes; shot him before he could kill me. And I squeezed down a mite too hard on that night deppity of John Stover's. But it was that louse of a Glenn Gleason that fixed it so's I could escape. Why? So's he could blame me for the dirty jobs he aimed to do!"

"You're lying like a dog!" cried Jeff, and the hand which held the gun was shaking.

Jeff turned his gaze on Connie. She was watching him, her eyes clouded with pain.

He said, "Connie, you mustn't believe this. You just can't. No matter what Slug says, the man who did those murders rode a horse with a broken shoe. I'll bet my life we'll find that horse belongs to Slug."

Slug cried, "You crazy? You think I'd carry an advertisement like that around with me? For weeks? Good Godfrey, Tyler! My hoss is in the shed out back; go out and examine his shoes for yoreself."

"You've probably changed them by this time." Doubt was creeping into Jeff's mind in spite of his fight to prevent it. Somehow this talk of Slug's sounded straight.

"I'd 'a' changed it long before this! My gosh, Tyler, with half the world lookin' for me do you think I'd neglect my hoss's feet?"

Of Course There'll Be Ham!

Fourth of July means fireworks, picnics and best of all, plenty of traditional, flavorful ham!

This year you can serve a family favorite and still join in the holiday fun, if you choose a whole or half-fully cooked, ready-to-eat ham, that requires little or no preparation.

Serve it cold as it is to go with warm weather appetites, or "dress up" your ham with a gleaming holiday glaze. To glaze, score the fat to make diamond shapes and drizzle a coating of honey or orange marmalade over the top. Sprinkle with brown sugar and place in a hot oven (400°F.) for 15 minutes to set the glaze.

Circle your holiday ham with tomato cups filled with well-seasoned cottage chees for a truly bang-up Fourth of July platter.

4-H Camp Session At Stanton Ends

STANTON, Neb.—Four-H clubbers from Stanton, Madison, Pierce, Wayne and Boone counties will return home today after three days of fun and learning at the Stanton district 4-H camp.

Approximately 200 boys and girls attended the camp at the fairgrounds and city park. They were taught subject matter and recreation by specialists from the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

Inmate Asks Protection Of Civil Liberties

Harry Dunn, 46-year-old state penitentiary inmate from Lexington, in a Federal suit filed against Warden James M. Jones, asks protection of his "civil liberties."

Dunn claims that he was held in solitary confinement against an order by District Judge Ralph Wilson, that the warden has refused to send mail and deliver mail sent to him.

Dunn last summer won a decree from Judge Wilson releasing him from solitary confinement but Judge Wilson was later reversed by the state Supreme court. Warden Jones reported Tuesday, however, that Dunn was not sent back to solitary after the reversal but that he has been in solitary for short times since then on other offenses.

Rev. Harold Sandall Named Dean Methodist Youth Fellowship Group

Rev. Harold C. Sandall of the Grace Methodist church was elected dean of the Lincoln district Methodist Youth Fellowship Institute at a meeting of staff workers and officials at the Y.M.C.A Wednesday.

The group also completed plans for the annual senior youth institute to be held July 17 to 24 in Milford. Theme of the institute is "Serving Christ In Our Day."

Jack Rank 'One Man Wonder' In Presenting Macbeth Here

A "one-man wonder," in the image of Jack Rank, appeared before a crowded Student Union ballroom Wednesday night to capture and delight the audience from start to final curtain, in the Shakespearean play, Macbeth.

Rank, who is the only actor in America to represent an entire play, portrayed all roles, male and female, in authentic costumes and effective dramatization. He spoke each part without a flaw, and the miracle man went through each characterization with a liveliness that kept the play going at all times.

With unique lighting effects, and various costumes, the quick-change artist left the stage speaking the lines of the current character and re-entered by another door in the changed costume, make-up, and voice for the next character. In Macbeth, Rank made 35 different costume changes. It took him just 30 seconds to make the most difficult change, during which time he kept a steady flow of dialogue.

Portrays 10 Characters.

During his portrayal of the 10 different characters in Macbeth, Rank won the approval of most of the audience by his "Out, out damned spot," soliloquy of Lady Macbeth. His speaking off stage while he made the costume and personification changes, kept the performance continuous.

Rank, a graduate student of the University of Nebraska in 1927, stepped from professor of drama and speech to one-man shows 15 years ago. His start came when he was to present some readings in Waverly, Neb. Through a mix-up with the hall manager and committeeman, Rank was billed as presenting the readings with costumes and scenery.

Although he did the readings that night, he began thinking about one-man shows. The more he thought about it, the more obsessed with the idea he became, until he decided to try it. The results have been heralded in all the 48 states and Canada. In the 15 years of the Jack Rank theater, he has presented over 4,000 of his mono-dramas.

Rank's performance was sponsored by the Union and the Summer session committee.

County Schools Must Furnish Kindergarten

...If Parents Demand

Schools lacking kindergartens for five-year-old students are affected by an opinion handed down by the director of administration of the state school system this week.

The opinion states that parents can compel a school district with no kindergarten to accept a child who reaches the age of five before Oct. 15 of the coming school year and provide the "beginning" grade for him.

The opinion was requested by Lancaster County Superintendent Glenn Turner, who states that this county has four high schools and 10 per cent of its rural schools have no kindergarten.

Law Raises Question.

The question arose from the law passed by the 1949 legislature on the new entrance age for children.

The law states that school districts shall not admit any child to the first grade unless he has reached the age of six on or before Oct. 15 of the coming school year.

The state constitution, however, provides for the free instruction of all persons between the ages of five and 21.

Thus, a five year-old child cannot go directly to the first grade, but his parents can insist on the school providing a kindergarten for him to attend.

4-H Demonstration Day Series Start

A series of 4-H demonstration days for counties in northern Nebraska started Wednesday at O'Neill.

A session for Rock county 4-Hers Wednesday evening was held in Bassett.

There will be a demonstration day at Springview for Keya Paha county clubbers Thursday. A similar program will start at 1:30 p. m. for Brown county 4-Hers at Ainsworth and Custer county 4-Hers will take demonstration training in Broken Bow starting at 10 a. m.

Specialists from the University of Nebraska college of agriculture and the state 4-H club office will give instructions.

How About A Blueberry Cobbler?

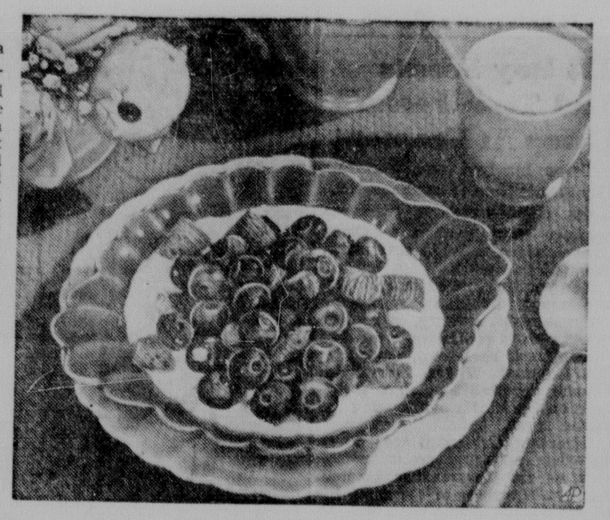

This is the peak of the blueberry season! Now is the time to serve the luscious berries.

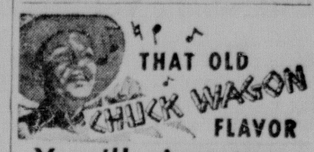

Time, too, to give your family those classic treats — blueberry muffins, blueberry pancakes, blueberry pie.

Old-Fashioned Blueberry Cobbler.

Ingredients: 1 pint basket large firm cultivated blueberries, 1 cup sugar, ½ teaspoon lemon juice, ¼ teaspoon cinnamon, 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, ¼ cup milk, ½ teaspoon vanilla.

Method: Put blueberries in colander or large strainer; pick over. Wash under cold running water, shake gently and allow to stand a few minutes to drain. Turn onto a tea towel and pat dry. Put blueberries in the bottom of a greased 8x8x2-inch cake pan. Sprinkle with ½ cup of sugar, the lemon juice, and the cinnamon and mix carefully so berries will be coated with the sugar; set aside. Mix and sift the flour, baking powder, salt, and remaining ½ cup sugar. Beat egg with a rotary or electric mixer until it begins to get pale and thick. Melt butter or margarine and beat with egg, milk and vanilla enough to combine; add dry ingredients and mix well. Put spoonfuls of the batter over blueberries at intervals and spread carefully over entire surface with a spatula in a thin layer. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees Fahrenheit) oven for 45 minutes. Serve with thin cream. Makes 6 servings.

One man's Opinion

by WALTER KIERNAN

Members of the Supreme court finally came to one unanimous decision . . . they agreed without dissent to knock off work for three months.

It was either quibble or quit until October and they loyally agreed to quit.

KIERNAN

And so would any other man who had to wear a hot kimono on the job.

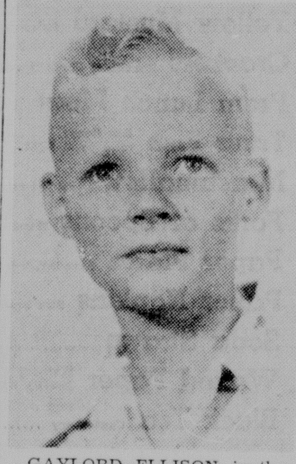

It would be interesting to know why the law is supreme when dressed in a flowing robe with long hem-line and shirred shoulders.

But if clothes make the law, why don't more appeals from the lower courts go to Saks-Fifth Avenue?

Anyway, in its final decision the court ruled 5-4 that anything a chambermaid sees through a keyhole is not legal evidence.

Identity of the justices who have keyholes was not revealed.

Star Carrier Of The Week

GAYLORD ELLISON is the Lincoln Star carrier in Kimballcrest and that vicinity. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duane G. Ellison of 3764 Everett. Mr. Ellison owns and operates the Texaco service station at Seventeenth and South streets.

In the short while that Gaylord has managed his route he has purchased a new bicycle and has a sizable bank account. Besides his carrier accident insurance which he carries, he also has another program of insurance. He is very talented, playing the piano and trombone.

His parents feel that he is receiving a business training from his route work which helps him to be more dependable, thrifty and co-operative.

Co-Operation Of Parents Sought In Fireworks Ban

An appeal to Lincoln parents to co-operate in enforcing fireworks ordinances was issued by Director of Public Welfare and Safety Cobe Venner.

In lamenting the fact that the police force is not large enough to take charge of all violators, Venner promised "the force will do all it can under the circumstances. I hope the parents will co-operate with the city and not buy the 'verboten' stuff for their children," he added.

The director noted that "sometimes adults are worse violators than children." However, it is the 16 to 21 age group that gives the police force the most trouble, he said.

By state law sale of fireworks is prohibited outside incorporated cities or villages. Since 1939 Lincoln has prohibited the sale and shooting of fireworks other than sparklers or colored light flares. "It is the small villages surrounding Lincoln that supply them," Venner complained.

Deputy County Attorney Arthur Whitworth said he thought there might be some being sold within the city limits.

$25,000 Personal Injury Suit Filed

Delores F. Meays filed a $25,000 personal injury suit against Don Galloway in District court Tuesday, charging she suffered injuries in an accident while riding as a passenger in Galloway's car.

The petition states the car driven by Galloway collided with another car which had stopped at the intersection of Tenth and Hampshire streets. The accident allegedly occurred June 8.

Two Waive Indictment

Two out-state men Wednesday waived indictment by grand jury and consented to prosecution by the United States attorney on charges of transporting a stolen car across state lines, a violation of the Dyer act.

Andrew M. Fuetter, 23, New Albany, Ind., now an inmate at the state penitentiary, consented to prosecution on charges of driving a stolen automobile from Chicago to Jeffersonville, Ind., Sept. 15, 1948.

Second of the men was James S. Coulter, 33, who was arrested June 3 at Republican City, who consented to prosecution on charges of driving a stolen auto from Eight Mile, Alabama, to Ruston, La., on March 19.

The two men appeared before Federal Judge John W. Delehant to waive indictment. Assistant U. S. Attorney James L. Brown said both had asked that their cases be transferred here for prosecution.

336 Boy Scouts End Two-Weeks' Camp At Fremont

Three hundred and thirty-six Boy Scouts from 12 southeast Nebraska cities ended a two-week summer camp session at Camp Cedars, eight miles southwest of Fremont this week.

The youths camped out in tents and engaged in activities including horsemanship, archery, swimming in the camp's pool, handicraft, and Indian lore. The camp, owned by the Covered Wagon council of Omaha, covers 320 acres of woodland on the bluffs overlooking the Platte river.

Directing the camp was E. O. Brezina, assistant scout executive of the Cornhusker council, Lincoln. Members of the camp inspection committee were Frank M. Chase, Scout executive of the council, Lincoln, Bill Fulton, deputy regional executive, and O. E. Ketterman, regional executive of Kansas City. Ted Lloyd, Lincoln, assistant scout executive, was in charge of the program.

Blue, red and white ribbons were awarded the troops for total points amassed by their members in individual scout and troop contests.

Winning blue ribbons were Lincoln troops Nos. 12, 51, 28, 40, 56, 27, 23, 36 and 46.

History Red Poll Cattle Is Outlined To Realtor's Board

F. A. Sloan, secretary of the Red Poll Cattle Club of America, told the Lincoln Board of Realtors at a luncheon Wednesday that Red Polls are the only hornless solid red color breed of cattle in the world.

He explained that Red Polls originated as a dual purpose milk and beef breed about 100 years ago in England. They were propagated and promoted for the benefit of the diversified farmer, he said.

National Organization Here.

Red Polls were first imported into the U. S. in 1850, he said, while the year of largest importation was around 1875. The national organization was organized in 1883 in Chicago, but was incorporated and moved to Lincoln in 1946. The club just recently built a new home office in Lincoln.

The films Sloan showed were "Red Polls in England" and "Red Polls on Experimental Feed at the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture."

Requirements For Referendum Told

Requirements of petitions seeking to suspend acts of the legislature were outlined in an opinion given Secretary of State Frank Marsh by the attorney general. The opinion held:

"Signatures must be obtained equivalent to ten per cent of the number of voters for governor at the last election. These must be so distributed as to include ten per cent of such votes in each of two-fifths of the counties."

This means the signatures must come from at least 38 different counties.

Petitions are being circulated to suspend the rent de-control act and the motor vehicle registration fee increase, both acts of the 1949 legislature.

MRS. JAMES LeROY PETTIS

Garden Wedding

for

MISS SARAH LOUISE MURRY AND JAMES LeROY PETTIS

Of particular interest to campus and town circles is the wedding of Miss Sarah Louise Murry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymond Murry of Yuba City, Cal., and James LeRoy Pettis, son of Mrs. Mack LeRoy Pettis of Redwood Falls, Minn., and the late Mr. Pettis, which was an event of Saturday evening, June 11.

The service was solemnized in the spacious gardens at the home of the bride's parents at 8:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Truman Jolley, minister of the First Presbyterian church at Marysville, Cal., reading the lines. Bowers of white blossoms, gladioli, Esther Reed and Marcone daisies, petunias, stock and snapdragons, growing against a background of shrubbery and evergreens, formed a natural setting for the service. The front of the garden was screened from the street with potted trees and greenery. Leading to the altar, banked with magnolia leaves and white gladioli, at the end of the garden was a processional aisle marked on either side with white candles in hurricane lamps mounted on white wrought iron standards.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. George Chiles of Davis, Cal. As the guests assembled Mrs. Chiles presented a prelude of organ music including, "Spring Song," Mendelssohn; "Old Refrain," Kreisler; Gounod's "Ave Maria," and "Liebestraum," Liszt. Mrs. Chiles also accompanied Earl Lane of Meridian, Cal., who sang, "At Dawning," and "All For You," preceding the ceremony.

Miss Joan Fankhauser of Humboldt, as the maid of honor; Mrs. George Allebrand of Los Angeles, the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Miss Janet Pettis, Redwood Falls, Minn., sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Norman Gottfredson, Glendale, Cal.; Miss Joan Kesmer, Honolulu, T. H.; Miss Blanche Certle and Miss Virginia Meschendorf, both of Yuba City, wore alike frocks of pistachio green marquisette. The bodices, in which sheer films of net, forming high rounded throatlines, dropped into a froth of frills to create the off-shoulder effect, were completed with peplum packs which splashed into ruffled frills extending to and encircling the hems of the bouffant skirts. They wore hair bandeaus of daisies caught with long back streamers reflecting the tone of their frocks, and their bouquets were of white daisies and ivy garlands. The aisle ribbons were carried by Miss Phyllis Kenyon of Yuba City, and Miss Jac-E-Lou Merritt of San Francisco, formerly of Lincoln, who were frocked in shell pink organza. The deep yokes of their costume were contoured with ruffles, forming a dropped-shoulder, and ruffles banded the full skirts worn over hoops. They also wore bandeaus of white daisies.

William Dickinson of Los Angles served Mr. Pettis as best man, and the ushers were Sherwin Murry, brother of the bride; Richard von Geldern, Kenneth Younger, George Allebrand, both of Los Angles, and Norman Gottfredson, Glendale.

The bride, escorted by her father down the ninety-foot white carpeted aisle that led from the house to the alter, appearing in a gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The molded bodice, with its heart-shaped neckline that slipped into long, closely fitted sleeves was delicately embroidered with seed pearls in a fragile leaf motif. Beneath the narrow waist were cascades of the lace spilling into soft frills down the back of the exceedingly full skirt and spreading into a wide train. Her illusion veil was fingertip length and was held to the head with a coronet of Chantilly lace ornamented with seed pearls, and caught clusters of white butterfly orchilds. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and bouvardia, centered with a spray of the white orchids, and frilled with net.

During the period of congratulations the receiving line formed before the livingroom fireplace which was screened with banks of white gladioli. The mantel was appointed with tall white tapers in heirloom crystal candelabra hung with garlands of daisies. The bridal party and the wedding guests then returned to the garden where white lights reflected through the shrubbery. The refreshment table was arranged with white net over white satin, and was skirted with flounces of the net. Appointing the table were white antherium lilies, flown in from Hawaii, white stock, and hurricane lamps with white candles. The four-tiered wedding cake was supported by mirrored columns, and frilled with confection lace from the base to the sprays of white orchids at the top. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Donald Boyd, Mrs. Charles Boyd, Mrs. Rennie J. Mahon, Mrs. Henry Meschendorf, Mrs. Wallace Coats, Mrs. Kenneth Reusser, Mrs. Ralph Certli, Mrs. A. D. Atterbury, Mrs. Frank Bremer, sr., Mrs. Willis Stewart, Mrs. Clara McFalland Mrs. James Berry.

Mr. Pettis and his bride left for Lancaster, Pa., where they will reside until the first of the year when they return to California. For traveling Mrs. Pettis wore a navy blue gabardine suit, with matching accessories. Pinned to her shoulder was a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Pettis attended the University of Nebraska, where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, for two years, and was graduated from the University of Southern California last year. During the year she has been teaching in the Terra Buena school in Sutter county, Cal. Mr. Pettis also attended the University of Nebraska where he was a member of the naval ROTC, and where he is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity.

1949 Waterfowl Season Confab

The state game commission will meet July 11 to recommend dates for the 1949 waterfowl season in Nebraska.

Secretary Paul Gilbert said a confidential report on possible dates for the Nebraska season had been received from the Federal Wildlife Service.

The commission will forward its recommendations to the wildlife service in Washington, from where the dates will be announced late in July or early in August.

DiMaggio Hits Two More HR

Joe Leads Yanks To 2nd Straight Over Sox

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

THE SAME old Joe DiMaggio! Three home runs in two days, six runs batted in and a .500 batting average. That's the stuff that made a $90,000 salary.

The mourners who shed a tear for the poor New York Yankees and their fat paychecks for a crippled star can toss the crying towel in the wet wash. The Yanks are getting their money's worth from Joe D.

DiMag's ailing heel may slice a few yards off his private acre in center field, but he's still Mr. Big with the bat. Ten weeks of fretting in street clothes while his mates led the American league didn't dull his batting eye—at least not in Boston.

Joe DiMaggio

Big Joe electrified a giant-sized Tuesday night crowd with a homer and single in his first league appearance since he limped off that same Boston field last October.

That was only the beginning. Yesterday he hammered two homers, one with two men on base, drove in four runs and personally accounted for the Yanks' 9-7 edge over the Red Sox.

This was the big series for the Sox. Rolling fast at home, they had climbed to within five games of the Yanks. A series sweep and they would have been up there knocking on the door. Instead they trail the Yanks by seven games and are back in the second division. Joe D. is the man responsible.

DiMag boosted the Yanks back in the league after Boston clubbed wild Tommy Byrne from the hill in the four-run first inning. Joe's homer with two men on off Ellis Kinder left the Sox with a 7-4 lead in the fifth.

After Gene Woodling's double with the bases loaded tied the score in the seventh, DiMaggio hit his game-winning blow off loser Earl Johnson with the bases empty in the eighth.

Cleveland averted disaster with a six-run rally in the last of the ninth inning to down Detroit, 8-7, in a night game after they were shut out, 4-0, by Hal Newhouser in the twilight opener of a doubleheader.

Bobby Feller let down the sweltering crowd of 65,243 when the Tigers knocked him out in a seven-run fifth inning. But the Tribe bounced back to win for Reliefer Steve Gromek when Pinch Hitter Bob Lemon doubled off Dizzy Trout with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth.

Carl Scheib finally got himself untracked, breaking a six-game losing streak with a 7-4 edge for Philadelphia over Washington. The result kept the second place A's, 4½ games behind the Yanks.

Ned Garver edged Walt Pierce in a tight duel as the St. Louis Browns knocked off the Chicago White Sox, 1-0.

Brooklyn and St. Louis kept in step in the hot National league chase as the Dodgers protected their one-game margin by defeating the Phillies, 5-1. The Cards clung to their heels by bouncing Chicago, 7-4.

F Street Midgets Edge Irving, 9-8

The F Street Midgets in the Class B loop eked out a 9-8 win over Irving Wednesday evening.

Although committing four miscues, the winners bunched three runs in the second inning and three more in the fourth for the win.

The F Street team is managed by Don Stroh, former University of Nebraska golfer.

B. Mathias Takes Title

... AAU Decathlon

TULARE, Calif.—(AP) — Tulare's Robert Bruce Mathias is still the nation's finest decathlon performer and Tulare remains the happiest city of 12,000 in the country.

"Our Bob," which is no idle phrase in this town, captured the National A. A. U. decathlon crown for the second straight year and kept untarnished the brighter glory he won as the Olympic games champion last summer at London.

The tall, good looking 18-year-old athlete rolled up 7556 points to outdistance a field of 18 rivals gathered from all parts of the nation.

It was the highest score registered since Colorado's Glenn Morris set the American record of 7880 points and the world record of 7900 points in 1936.

It also eclipsed in this, the fourth time Bob ever tried the strenuous 10-event program, his mark of 7,224 in the nation last year and his 7,139 in the Olympics.

The next highest scorers were: Irving Mondeschein, New York, 7,044; Bill Albans, North Carolina Univ., 6,715; Roger Terwilliger, Illinois A. C., 6,581; Floyd Simmons, Charlotte, N. C., 6,483.

Bob exceeded his previous best efforts in five events on the bill—the broad jump, high jump, hurdles, discus and javelin.

Trans-Miss Favorites Triumph

MRS. LUCILE MANN ONLY NEBRASKAN LEFT AS SECOND ROUND OPENS TODAY

BY NORRIS ANDERSON
(Sports Editor, The Star)

THAT CELEBRATED young man on the flying trapeze had nothing on favored daughters of the Trans-Mississippi Wednesday.

With the greatest of ease, the liked linkers flew through first-round foes as only one match reached the Lincoln Country club's 18th green.

As was assured by the 75 to 97 spread in championship qualifying, nearly all of the openers made light summer reading.

Only one match—the Gracie De-Moss vs. Mrs. John Wilkin setee—carried to the home green.

Mrs. Lucile Mann, veteran Lincoln campaigner and Trans-Miss champ in 1941, was the only Nebraskan able to survive first-round fire.

In spite of two-over-par sixes on 1 and 9, Mrs. Mann was only one over par in the 12 holes needed to eliminate Mrs. Louise Krings of Kansas City, Mo., 7 and 6.

Mrs. Mann swung the match on a bit of putting brilliance on No. 4.

On the green in two and putting for an eagle from 14 feet out, Mrs. Mann missed the putt and found her ball victim of Mrs. Kring's stymie. She hauled out a nine iron and chipped over the stymie, hitting the cup on the fly from four feet out for a birdie.

FACES DEVANY.

Mrs. Mann was slated to tee off against Pat Devany, Gross Ile, Mich., at 2:05 p. m. today in second round play.

Joan Martig of Omaha, sister of Howard, the old NU gridder, fell victim, 4 and 3, to Miss Devany Wednesday.

It continued to look like Texas against the field.

Betty Rawls, Betty MacKinnon and Defending Champion Polly Riley — the titanic Texans — loomed as the three tourney favorites.

A 2-under par job by Miss MacKinnon, the tourney's gallery favorite, ousted Francis Gallus of Omaha, 7 and 6. Leading from the first hole, Betty allowed the Omahan only one hole, the eighth, and it required an eagle there. The card:

Par out	4	4	4	5	3	4	5	6	4—39
MacKinnon out	4	4	4	5	3	4	5	4	4—38
Galus out	4	5	6	7	3	5	6	4	4—45
Par in	3	6	4
MacKinnon in	4	6	3
Galus in	5	6	4

Miss Riley, the husky Fort Worth legal stenographer, romped over Mrs. Elma Chappell, Kansas City, Mo., by 9 and 7. Mrs. Chappell failed to win a hole as Polly wound up two under for nine holes. The card:

Riley out	4	3	4	4	4	4	5	6	4—38
Chappell out	5	4	6	4	5	5	6	6	5—46
Riley in	4	6
Chappell in	6	5

Miss Rawls, the 21-year-old Texas U. co-ed, found slightly tougher competition in Betty Wranic of Omaha. At least she was carried to 14 holes before settling the Nebraskan, 6 and 4. Although halving eight holes, Miss Wranic failed to win one as Miss Rawls was one under par for 14.

Two former Lincoln city champions, Peg Anderson and Gladys Scott, fell before outstate opponents.

Mrs. Marshall Becker, Kansas women's champion, eliminated Mrs. Anderson, 8 and 6, and Miss Bee McWane, Salt Lake City champ, ousted Mrs. Scott, 9 and 7.

Mrs. W. O. Larson of Omaha, former state ruler, lost a close 2 and 1 match to Mrs. D. D. Weiss of Flint, Mich. One up on at nine, Mrs. Larson then lost 12, 13, 14 and 16.

Jo Fisher Hits Hole-In-One ...With Assist

Ever hear of a hole-in-one with an assist?

That feat was accomplished by Jo Fisher of Lincoln Wednesday during play in the Trans-Mississippi second flight play.

Her opponent, Mrs. C. J. Botsford, drew credit for the assist after Mrs. Fisher's tee shot on the 155-yard No. 10 had rolled within eight inches of the cup.

Mrs. Botsford's approach then knocked in Mrs. Fisher's ball for a hole-in-one-with-assist.

Inspired by the feat, Mrs. Fisher won the match, 2 and 1.

Rev. Kealy To City Net Finals

Rev. T. M. Kealy provided the fireworks in the men's singles tourney at the Muny tennis courts Wednesday.

Rev. Kealy, unseeded, defeated favored Bob Klienert, 6-1, 8-6, in a quarterfinal round and then entered the finals by stopping young Walt Weaver, 6-2, 6-3. Kealy's net game proved too strong for the junior star who had previously won a shot at the semi-finals by overwhelming defending champion Mark Bullock.

In other matches Bill Barrett decisioned Ray Abernathy, 6-3, 6-0. Barrett later bowed to Bob McGehee, 6-1, 6-3. McGehee will meet Bob Slezak in a semi-final match with the winner meeting Rev. Kealy in the final.

In the only junior girl's match Nancy Poland earned a tennis berth by defeating Jo Ann O'Brien, 6-1, 6-3.

Jim Wells won from Don Isherwood by scores of 6-0, 7-5, in the junior boy's singles. He will meet Walt Weaver in the finals.

Entries for the Municipal tennis doubles tournament are now being accepted at Muny City Recreation office, A Street tennis courts and the Lincoln Tennis club.

Bruins Bump A's, 3-1

Two Homers By Guettler Ruins Fauth's 7-Hitter

By NORRIS ANDERSON.

LINCOLN'S late wave of power hitting was hardly an eddy in the backwash of a 190-pound Des Moines slugger named Ken Guettler Wednesday night at Sherman Field.

Powered largely by the 21-year-old Guettler's two resounding home runs, the invading Bruins coasted to a 3-1 conquest of the the Athletics.

Walt Novick.

A seven-hit pitching job by Lew Fauth went for naught under the charm of Guettler's two homers, both leftfield hurdlers, and a neat exhibition of hit-scattering by 6-foot 5-inch Vern Fear.

The loss shoved the A's 22 percentage points out of second spot in the Western. It was Fauth's sixth defeat against eight wins.

Lincoln batsmen touched Fear for eight singles and a double, but kept the scoring potential well scattered. Pitcher Fauth himself left seven mates stranded when he struck out twice and fouled out in three times at bat.

Aside from Guettler's Herculean hammering, the game was a study in tight-knit fielding, control pitching and all the smoother elements in baseball.

It was 0-0 and a Fauth-Fear mound duel appeared in full bloom until the A's netted a run in the fifth.

Des Moines matched the run with a two-run salvo in the seven. Guettler's second homer in the ninth proved strictly icing.

Walt Novick was the A's only run-maker. The Walpole, Mass., backstop made the round on a leftfield double, a single by Bobby Stewart and Eddie Boehm's fly to leftfield.

STRAY RUN.

Des Moines only "Guettlerless" run occurred in the seventh when Leon Brinkopf walked and made it home on Danny Lynch's lengthy double to rightfield. On the same play, Lynch was tagged by Joe Aliperto while attempting to stretch the blow into a triple.

Fauth's pitching, aside from Guettler's home run servings (both fast balls down the middle), was top drawer. He was rarely in trouble and faced only 32 men over nine innings.

Novick's double and single led the A's at bat. Tommy Kirk's two rightfield singles ranked as the next most lethal weapon.

A tight mound duel was expected in the series finale tonight when Lincoln's Lynn Lovenguth faces Des Moines' Don Swartz. Each hurler has blanked the other twice this season.

DENVER — (AP) — Trailing all the way, Sioux City tied the score in the eighth and rallied in the 10th inning Wednesday night to crush Denver, 7-4, in a Western league game.

The loss broke Denver's six-game win streak and left them in the league cellar. A crowd of 9,710 had turned out to see the Bears try to make it seven straight.

PUEBLO WINS IN 10TH.

PUEBLO, Colo.—(AP)—Pueblo catcher Dick Teed's first hit in three games came Wedensday night in the last of the 10th with the bases loaded and gave the Dodgers a 5-4 Western league victory over Omaha.

Teed's single to center was on a three-and-two pitch with two out. The win gave the loop leading Puebloans the series two-to-one.

The Firing Line

BETWEEN full days of Trans-Mississippi play and nights with the Lincoln Athletics, these are long days for Lincoln fans—and hours of long labor for the sports writing gentry . . . Even if it means long hours, it's a pleasure to cover such an interesting event as the Trans-Miss or to watch the A's in their current winning mood . . . Mrs. Lucille Mann, Lincoln's main threat in the Trans-Miss, enjoys all sports . . . The lady even possesses a flying license . . . Winner of the tourney will receive the George III bowl, made in London in 1910 by Thomas Robins, foremost silversmith of his time . . A traveling trophy, it was first used as the champion's reward in the 1939 tourney . . . The winner will be required to tur the trophy back to the Trans-Mississippi association six weeks before the 1950 tournament . . . Polly Riley, defending champion from Fort Worth, Tex., drew the top price in the calcutta pool at $575 . . . Next was Betty MacKinnon (Mount Pleasant, Tex.) at $480, followed by Marjorie Lindsay, (Decatur, Ill.) at $400, Grace DeMoss (Corvallis, Ore.) at $280 and Lucille Mann (Lincoln) at $210 . . . Del Ryder, star of the University of Nebraska golf team, is caddying for Miss Lindsay . . . First official "Trans" in 1927 drew 122 players and the medalist shot an 82. . . . Record entry for all time was 221 registered in Tulsa in 1938 . . . Miss Opal Hill, famed golf instructor from Kansas City, Mo., is here for the tourney . . . One of her pupils, Patty Berg, defeated her in the 1935 Trans-Miss . . . Roy Wythers, city junior golf champ, is caddying for Mrs. Mann . . . Tickets to the meet are on sale at Elks club, Lawlor's, Miller's, University club and the Country club . . . Ducats are 90 cents daily and $1.20 for either Saturday or Sunday . . . Mrs. E. R. Mansfield of Des Moines, Ia., had one advantage over other entrants . . . She knows how to sew and knit, two lost arts in these days of women on the links.

Howard Gordon.

BILL BRYSON, well-known Des Moines Register baseball writer, called Ken Guettler's first home run Wednesday night . . . No sooner had Bill said, "Watch this guy hit a homer—he's due," than young Ken sent the horsehide soaring over the leftfield fence . . . Watching the game were Harry O'Donnell, Philadelphia Athletic scout, and Earl Whitehill, now a Spalding salesman . . . Pitcher Freddy Wells was called home to Junction City, Kas., by the death of his infant daughter . . . Players from both teams will take a collection in the stands tonight for the Wells family.

Gaylord White, of Glendale, Calif., who will be here to handle the public address system at the state fair grounds July 4, was a left-handed pitcher for Iowa State in his college days.

Vern Strauch, the Husker golfer, is selling automobile insurance for All-State this summer.

Anthony "Tony" Busco, the A's relief pitcher, was also a basketball player in high school . . . Son of a Bronx, N. Y., insurance man, Tony plans to pursue a business career upon graduation from baseball . . . He used to play baseball as a hobby on New York sandlots, but became serious about the sport during army days . . . Before joining Lincoln in the spring of 1948, he served 'em up for Niagara Falls in the New York State league.

Business Manager Howard Gordon of the A's, who should know, says that Sherman field attendance this summer is 10,000 ahead of a year ago.

WAITKUS SHOOTER DECLARED INSANE

CHICAGO — (AP) — In rapid-fire disposal of legal routine, the 19-year-old girl admirer who shot First Baseman Eddie Waitkus Thursday was adjudged insane and committed to Kankakee state hospital.

The girl, Ruth Ann Steinhagen, appeared in felony court with the man she shot. After preliminary pleadings she was bound over to the grand jury.

A true bill was immediately voted and the indictment returned before Chief Justice James J. McDermott of criminal court. This was shortly after Waitkus, sitting in a wheel chair, confronted the girl for the first time since she shot him in a hotel room June 15.

Fox Keeps Pete Suder Inactive

...Philly A's

WASHINGTON— (AP) —Jacob Nelson Fox, a fuzzy-cheeked, 21-year-old kid, has sparked the Philadelphia Athletics with the same fighting spirit that almost carried the Mackmen to the American league pennant last year.

Nelson Fox.

The A's fans were discouraged June 17, as regular Second Baseman Pete Suder was spiked in the foot. The team physician said he'd be out for a week.

"Well, that's where we slip to the second division," echoed the fans.

But that was before Nelson Fox took over the keystone sack. The lad from St. Thomas, Pa., has done a bang-up job since. And Suder, now in shape, can't break into the lineup.

HEAVY HITTER.

Fox's completely unexpected power at the plate, and his sparkling fielding not only have kept the A's in second place, but have brought the Mackmen within shouting distance of the front-running New Yorkers.

As of Wednesday, Fox had cracked 17 hits in 39 times at bat for a .436 average. In the field, he has accepted 62 chances and made only one error.

At the start of the season, the A's still believed that Fox needed more seasoning, although he had been in the Mack organization since he was 16.

This spring they placed him on the waiver list with the idea of selling him to a Triple-A club. However, the Chicago Cubs forestalled that move. They promptly filed a claim.

So the Athletics kept Fox. And now they're happy they did.

"I had all the confidence in the world in Fox," said Connie Mack. "But the way he has been hitting has certainly surprised me. I thought that he would be a fair hitter and an excellent fielder."

Fox spent last season with Lincoln in the Western league and hit .311 in 136 games. The previous three years he spent with Lancaster, Pa., in the Inter-State League.

Fords Take 7th Win At Hastings

Jim Cederdahl's three-hit pitching sparked the Lincoln Fords to a 5-4 win over Hastings in an American Legion junior baseball contest Wednesday night.

Cederdahl fanned 10 Hastings batsmen and allowed only a single hit after the initial stanza. He walked three.

The losers staged a last inning rally but were shut off after shoving across two runs.

The win was Ford's seventh as against one defeat.

Overhauling THE NEWS

BY WALLY DeBROWN

For folks who have been eyeing the new $20 bills with a dubious squint, the bankers say there's nothing to worry about. The new bills have Pres. Truman's new balcony added to the White House, the shrubbery is a little higher, four chimneys replace the two old ones and the flag now hangs at an angle. Apart from that they're as good as gold . . . or, well, anyway they're all right. So you have nothing to worry about if you get a double sawbuck that brings the Washington scenery up to date. The only worry now is how to get a wallet full. And that's not new.

In Port Chester, N. Y., Louis Shutt and Bertha Upp were married. That ought to be a nice quiet household. If you're looking forward to a nice, quiet summer of driving, be sure your car's in top shape. Bring it for service to DeBROWN AUTO SALES CO., 1717 "O" St. We'll equip it with Firestone tires so you'll be sure of safe, satisfactory driving. Come in or phone 2-6863.—Adv.

Virginia Car Driver Here July 4th

Big Al Fleming, Virginia's nationally known big car racer from Richmond, has entered a racing powerhouse capable of roaring into top money at the 4th annual IMCA championship big car auto races, to be held on the State Fair track here, July 4.

Fleming, who was the fourth fastest qualifier among the nation's leading brick speedway pilots at Atlanta's Lakewood speedway this spring, will bring his new mount, the famous Denny Dreyer to Lincoln to contest Deb Synder, Bobby Grim, Frankie Luptow and other top-rated rivals.

The Richmond pilot, long a stand-out eastern speed king, came into his own on racing's major circuits last year, registering a series of upsets on his first invasion of the midwest.

Mrs. DuPont Enters Wimbledon Finals

LONDON—(AP)—Mrs. Margaret Osborne DuPont of Bellevue, Del., advanced to the finals of women's singles in the Wimbledon tennis championships Thursday by trouncing a fellow American, Mrs. Helen Pedersen Rihbany of Boston, 6-2, 6-2.

The American champion won almost as she pleased, running up a 5-0 lead in the first set before relaxing somewhat.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Vishinsky Claiming A Victory

Russ Firmness Forced West Retreat At Paris, Red Leader Contends

LONDON—(AP)— Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky disagreed sharply today with Dean Acheson's analysis of the Paris Big Four meeting and declared Russian firmness forced a western retreat.

Vishinsky said the agreements reached at Paris differed "seriously" from the original proposals put forward by Britain, France and the United States.

On the other hand, he added, after careful reading of the communique issued by the Big Four, "it is not difficult to see x x x the basic ideas of the proposals submitted by the Soviet delegation in the council of foreign ministers during the very first days of its work."

4,200-Word Statement.

In a 4,200-word statement distributed in London through the official Soviet news agency, Vishinsky differed with the U. S. secretary of state on the progress of the Marshall plan and whether it was Russia or the west who wanted to give the Germans more freedom.

Acheson told a Washington news conference after his return from Paris that Russia had been put on the defensive in the struggle for Europe and was afraid to relax its iron grip on eastern Germany because they knew they would no longer be able to control the German people if they did so.

Acheson said the reason for the strength of the west in the Paris sessions was "the progress that has been achieved in the restoration of western Europe."

Sees Marshall Failures.

Vishinsky, taking a completely opposite view said:

"I think that precisely the failures of the Marshall plan should be regarded as one of the reasons for the departure of the three (western) ministers at the Paris session from their original so-called "firm policy."

The Soviet leader said the Paris conference came about because of mutual concessions over Berlin by east and west and added:

"I think that in the future too, it will be necessary to make certain mutual concessions compatible with the principles of the Potsdam agreement."

Acheson had said at Paris the United States wanted to make a new start, rather than go back to the Potsdam agreement, because conditions in Germany had changed greatly since that agreement was negotiated.

Vishinsky charged Acheson with a "groundless" assertion in saying the Russians were afraid to grant freedom to the Germans.

"How," he asked, "is one to explain the fact that both he and his western colleagues resolutely objected to all the proposals of the Soviet delegation directed precisely at restoring the unity of Germany and giving the Germans freedom in their own affairs?"

No Beer Sold To Local Youth, Says Operator

Hearing On Crete License Revocation

Adolph Smejkal, Crete beer tavern operator, in a revocation hearing before the state liquor commission Thursday disclaimed all knowledge of beer allegedly sold from his place of business to two teen-age Lincoln youths.

After a four hour hearing, the case was taken under advisement by the commission.

Smejkal's tavern has been named as the place where beer was purchased by a Lincoln youth on May 30. Later in the same day one of the group, William Roy Day, 17, died as a result of a fight.

The fight occurred when Day and his companions, Ted Hatfield, 16, Cheney; Kenneth Waite, 3525 Washington; Rita Mattern, 811 South Thirty-fifth; Marcia Fletcher, 1001 South Thirty-seventh, and Eunice Hamsher, 720 South Twenty-eighth, stopped at a filling station on South Thirty-third street about midnight on May 30.

There, Day and Edmund Steinaur, jr., 18, 801 South Thirty-fifth, got in a fight after Day took exception to greetings called by Steinaur to one of the girls in Day's car. A coroner's inquest later cleared Steinaur of any blame in Day's death.

Not In Tavern.

At the liquor commission hearing, Smejkal testified that he was not in the tavern the evening the sale was allegedly made.

One of his employes, Verne June, also of Crete, was identified by Kenneth Waite as the person who had sold him the beer. June Thursday denied ever having seen Waite or any of the other boys in the tavern and said he was positive he did not sell Waite any beer at any time.

He testified that one case of beer was sold at the tavern that night, but it was sold to a person dressed differently than Waite had been.

Waite, now stationed in San Diego with the navy, was not present at the hearing. Ted Hatfield, one of the members of the group, testified before the commission that he did not see Waite buy the beer, since he remained outside in the car until the case of beer was carried out the backdoor of the tavern by Waite.

No One Saw Purchase.

The three girls in the group also testified that they did not see the beer purchase, nor did they see the beer put in the car. They first saw the beer, they said, when they got back into the car for the return trip to Lincoln.

The teen-agers said that after driving to Crete to get the beer they came directly back to Lincoln where more than half of the 24 cans in the case were consumed.

They also stated that none of the boys appeared intoxicated when they drove to the filling station where the fight took place. Hatfield voice the opinion that the fight would have occurred regardless of whether any beer had been consumed.

F. H. Klone, inspector for the commission, testified Thursday that he had taken Waite and Hatfield back to Crte on June 3, four days after the fatal fight, and that the youths had pointed out the Smejkal tavern as the place where the beer was furnished. Later, in Klon's presence Waite identified June as the person who had sold him the case of beer. Klone stated that June, when confronted by the youths, denied ever having seen them before.

June stated that he had been warned repeatedly by Smejkal never to sell beer to minors, and that it would be impossible to think Waite anything but a minor.

Stocks Gain In Dull Trade

NEW YORK— (AP) —A heavy-footed stock market slowly advanced today.

Gains ranged from fractions to around a point, not enough buying power developed to give the price level any more of a lift.

Trading interest was no more than apathetic. Turnover was at the rate of only 600,000 shares or so far the full session.

News of the department of justice anti-trust suit against Du Pont, General Motors, U. S. Rubber and others failed to make a dent on the market, even on stocks of the companies directly affected.

Most observers felt that tangible results of the suit, if any, would not be apparent for a long time.

Five Hurt In Car Crash At Intersection

Five persons, including three children, escaped serious injuries Thursday in a two-car collision at Fourteenth and F streets.

The injured, all passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Bernard DuBois, 32, 1332 Chautauqua, were Mrs. DuBois and her seven year-old son Lon, Mrs. Otto G. Waters, 28, 1028 South Sixteenth and her son and daughter, Gaele, 2½ and Marcia, 3½.

Hospital attendants at St. Elizabeth, where the injured were treated, reported that with the exception of Mrs. uBois, all were treated for shock and bruises and released. Mrs. DuBois is being held for observation.

The accident occurred when the car driven by Mrs. DuBois collided with a car driven by Tom LeRoy McCarthy, 18, 1430 Smith.

Police said the DuBois car was headed west on F and the other car was northbound on Fourteenth. The two cars met in the middle of the intersection and the impact carried both several yards north.

The DuBois car stopped at the east curb of Fourteenth and the car driven by McCarthy went over the east curb and stopped on the sidewalk in front of the Church of CChrist. Both cars were damaged considerably.

Dr. Frank H. Beer, Western, Neb., owner of the car McCarthy was driving, was with McCarthy when the accident occurred. He said they were en route to Geneva.

Wheat Lower; Corn Uneven

CHICAGO—(AP)—Selling late in the day either completely wiped out or greatly reduced gains made in early dealings on the board of trade today. The selling followed news rains had been received in parts of the spring wheat and rye belts.

Rye tumbled sharply.

Until late in the day, the market had turned in a firm performance under the leadership of wheat. The cereal was aided by an early advance in cash prices and by overnight announcement of an unchanged parity level.

Wheat closed ⅝ to 1¼ cents lower, July $1.05½@⅝, corn was ¼ lower to ⅝ cent higher, July $1.34⅜@⅝, oats were ⅛ cents lower to ¼ cent higher, July 58¾@⅞; rye was 2⅜ to 4¼ cents lower, July $1.35¾@1.36, soybeans were unchanged to ½ cent higher July $2.21@⅝, and lard was 10 cents lower to 5 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $10.50.

Bite Put On Dog's Bite By Illinois Legislature

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — (AP) — The Illinois senate has voted to protect the mailman, milkman and meterman from dogs who bite.

It passed and sent to the governor a bill making the owner liable if his dog puts the bite on anyone doing business on the owner's property. The business, of course, must be lawful.

Two Women Hurt When Hit By Car

Two women were injured early Thursday when they were struck by a car at the intersection of Seventeenth and Vine streets.

The two were Edna Summers, 42, 3412 N, and Ruth Baty, 31, 3320 O. Both were taken to St. Elizabeth hospital for treatment of injuries which police said were minor.

The women were crossing Vine on the east side of Seventeenth street when they were struck by a car driven by A. V. Chubbuck, Route 5, Lincoln. Chubbuck was driving south on Seventeenth and making a left turn into Vine, the report said.

$100,000 Damage Suit Filed In York Explosion

YORK, Neb.—(AP)—Mrs. Ruth Keyes asked $100,000 damages in a suit filed in District court yesterday against the Central Electric and Gas company.

The suit is filed as a result of an explosion which seriously injured Mrs. Keyes and her husband, Cleon, last Feb. 24. Keyes filed a separate suit in March for the same amount.

Keyes suffered a severed spinal cord and Mrs. Keyes burns on the arms, legs, body and face in the explosion which wrecked a residential property in which they had an apartment.

Mrs. Keyes, who has been hospitalized here since the explosion, was flown to a Chicago hospital last week to receive special treatment. Keyes is at Hines Veterans hospital in Chicago.

The petition charged the gas company with neglect in permitting gas to escape from the main and impounding in the residence, in repair of mains and of failure to maintain an adequate inspection system.
